Khrushchev To Tell New Disarm Plan

WASHINGTON (UPI) —Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev said today that "it would be sheer madness to allow a new world war to come to a head."

Unless the United States and Russia work together for peace, he said, "the earth will be covered with ashes and graves."

Speaking before a National Press Club luncheon, he declared that "the Soviet people have long made their choice for peace."

"We are convinced that the American people also are for peace," he said.

Khrushchev said that "the best, the most reliable way to make war impossible" would be "to solve the problem of disarmament."

He announced that he will submit a new disarmament plan to the United Nations when he speaks before the U. N. General Assembly Friday.

In the realm of international strategy, the only really new thing in Khrushchev's speech was the disclosure of a forthcoming new Russian proposal on disarmament. He described this as "the most burning issue of our time.

The speech disclosed no change in the Soviet attitude on Germany or Berlin.

He called again for recognition of two separate Germanies —West Germany and the Communist puppet regime in the East.

Khrushchev gave no details of his new disarmament proposal.

There two notable omissions in Khrushchev's address.

He did not, at any point, bring up his previously expressed belief in the confidence of the Soviet Union to catch up and surpass the United States in industrial production.

He did not refer to the Far East, with its pressing problems such as Laos and the Formosa dispute.

The speech was the highlight of Khrushchev's second day in the United States.

Khrushchev spent the morning inspecting the 11,000-acre U. S. Agricultural Research Center at nearby Beltsville, Md. He admired the American cows, pigs and turkeys displayed before him, and told his host, Agriculture Secretary Ezra T. Benson, that "we have a lot to learn from you about farming."

Khrushchev readily took up an implied challenge from Benson for the United States and Russia to compete in producing food as a weapon for peace. Benson said Americns believe that food "can be, and should be, an agency for peace."

Khrushchev, patting one of the famous broad-breasted white Beltsville turkeys developed at the research center, commented: "The more turkeys we both have, the better it will be for the Soviet and capitalist worlds . . ."

U.N. Shelves Red China Seating Again

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) —The U.N. Steering Committee today brushed aside Soviet objections and voted to shelve for another year the question of seating Red China in the world organization.

The postponement was proposed by the United States.

The vote in the 21-nation committee was 12-7 with one abstention.

It still has to be ratified by the full 82-nation General Assembly, but approval was assured.

Voting for the U.S. resolution were the United States, Britain, France, the Philippines, Turkey, Brazil, Union of South Africa, Nationalist China, Liberia, Bolivia, Belgium and Guatemala.

The negative votes were cast by the Soviet Union, Romania, Czechoslovakia, Burma, Indonesia, Sweden and Morocco.

Austria abstained and the assembly president, Peruvian Ambassador Victory Andrews Belaunde, refrained from voting.

MARINITE'S IMPRESSION:

Soviet Russia: A Nice Place To Visit But...

By RANDALL GOULD

Soviet Russia is a nice place to visit, but you wouldn't want to live there.

It's a myth that you have to drink tea. Russian coffee is available everywhere, and it's good coffee, too.

These are among the impressions gained in 13 days of travel in the U.S.S.R.—by coincidence, exactly the same time Khrushchev is spending here—by a Tiburonite, William T. Brantman of 2480 Mar East road.

Brantman returned yesterday, a couple of weeks ahead of a Marin fellow-voyager, J. A. Lucas of 201A Valley street, Sausalito, who is in Greece following the Russian visit.

Both were members of a group of 40 Northern Californians who went to Russia by invitation of Soviet Foreign Trade Commissar Anastas I. Mikoyan—and who were just as well treated as they had optimistically expected, according to Brantman.

Brantman said he finds it difficult to answer the question thrown at him from every direction: "How did you find Russia?" It's a yes-and-no thing, he feels, including much obvious Russian achievement, many drawbacks to an American, and a great problem of the future.

"They are dedicated to an ideal we can't understand," he said. "They are so dedicated as to make our Gettysburg Address sound like the Boy Scout oath. For them this is an ice-breaking period with us and they're being nice, but for the

Terra Linda, Mill Valley Vote Down Bond Issues

Recreation Funds Lose By 66 Votes

Terra Linda residents voted down a proposed $350,000 recreational bond issue yesterday by the narrow margin of 66 votes.

In a 77 per cent turnout of eligible voters, 664 cast ballots for the bond issue — 66 short of the two-thirds majority needed for approval. Voting "no" were 432 residents. Twenty-one absentee ballots will be opened Sept. 21 at a special meeting of the Terra Linda Community Services District. Services district directors, who had proposed the recreational project and backed it against the opposition of the Terra Linda Home Owners Assn., immediately pledged their continued efforts toward a recreational program in Terra Linda.

John P. Namle, president of the services district board, said all the members were disappointed that the bond issue failed to pass.

"We truly feel this was a magnificent program put before the voters of Terra Linda," said Namle. "We recognize that enough of the residents didn't want this program, so we must try something else.

"We recognize our obligations to the residents and intend to carry them out to the best of our ability. For the board I extend our sincere gratitude to those people who spent so much of their time in the past few weeks in a per-

Classroom Measure Fails For 4th Time

For the fourth time in three years, Mill Valley School District voters yesterday turned down a proposed $600,000 bond issue for construction of more classrooms.

The vote was 2,437 in favor to 1,508 opposed, lacking the necessary two-thirds majority by 193 votes.

Similar bond issues of varying amounts were defeated last May, in 1958 and in 1957.

Heaviest opposition came at the American Legion Hall polling place, where the vote favored the issue by only 187 to 182, and at the Tamalpais Valley Improvement Club, where the proposal polled 123 "yes" to 124 "no" votes.

The only organized opposition to the measure came from a group with Mrs. Thomas McDougall as spokesman. She was not available for comment today.

A citizen committee favoring passage of the issue, headed by J. Keith Thwaites, had been campaigning for several weeks among voter groups in the district.

Mrs. Jean Rosse, chairman of the district trustees, declared today: "I am, of course, disappointed and discouraged at the outcome of the election. I am at a loss to understand the reason for the result. But I wish to express the trustees' appreciation to Mr. Thwaites and Mrs. Edmund Gross and their

SECRET MEETING TOPIC

Charges Leveled At County Nurse

The head nurse at the Marin County Hospital and Farm today was revealed as the subject of a secret meeting yesterday by the Marin County Board of Supervisors.

The Marin County Grand Jury is investigating allegations against Miss Laura D. Sypin, 37, an employee of the county since July 1, 1957.

Supervisors Chairman Walter R. Castro said today he does not think the meeting yesterday should have been kept secret. If charges are to be made, they should be made in the open, Castro declared.

Castro said at least two county employees have said that they "can't get along with her." He said the employees had attempted to "make charges" without the use of their names. He said he thought the charges should be made in writing.

The names of these persons, however, apparently were contained in a letter given the board yesterday by County Administrator Donald A. Jensen. The subject of the letter was Miss Sypin and various alleged charges against her. It was the reason the board went into executive session.

Miss Sypin, according to an employee at the hospital and farm in Lucas Valley, is on vacation and will not return to work until next Wednesday. She was not available for comment.

ATTORNEY HIRED

It was understood, however, that Miss Sypin knows that charges have been made against her, has hired an attorney and has demanded a hearing.

Under the Brown Act such a hearing may be held in secret unless the person against whom charges are made wants the hearing public.

The board of supervisors yesterday set 9 a.m., Oct. 8, two days after its regular weekly meeting date, as the time for a closed hearing on the matter.

The board yesterday was told by County Counsel Leland H. Jordan that it could hold an executive session on the matter, but Jordan added that, if any punitive action were taken, the matter should be made public.

'WASN'T KIND'

Castro also said the letter from Jensen involved "charges" by relatives of persons at the hospital with the claim that "Miss Sypin wasn't kind."

It is known that Mrs. Carmel H. Booth, a San Anselmo city councilman and a frequent visitor to the farm and hospital, and farm committee of the tal, has filed a report with the hospital and farm committee of the grand jury.

Mrs. Booth declared "it's a hell hole out there!" She said she had been a visitor to the farm for years since the days when there was a tuberculosis ward there and she was an outpatient. "I'm an arrested TB case," she said.

Stubborn Brush Blaze Endangers 2 Firemen

Tree stumps and logs were still smoking this morning after a fierce 15-acre brush and grass fire which burst out at 2:30 p.m. yesterday on Tennessee Valley road near Fernwood Cemetery.

Units from the Tamalpais Valley and Marin County Fire Departments fought the blaze until after 4 o'clock to bring it under control. County firemen under Asst. Fire Chief Louis Bloom remained on patrol throughout the night to guard against a new flare-up.

Six trucks from the county and two from the Tam Valley department were in action against the blaze.

At one time, Tam Valley Fire Chief Herbert (Bud) Owen and Asst. Chief Ralph Smith were in danger of being trapped when a strong wind whipped the blaze around three sides of their truck as they sought to halt the march of flames toward Crest Marin homes.

The two were able to get their truck out successfully with only a little of its paint scorched.

Three county fire department trucks from Marin City were fighting a grass fire above Marin City when the alarm sounded. They later joined the Tennessee Valley battle.

The blaze also presented a serious hazard to firemen and residents in the area due to the burning of dense thickets of poison oak.

A cigarette discarded from a passing car was suspected as the cause of the stubborn blaze.

The Marin City fire, which burned one and one-half acres of grass near the water tanks, was blamed by County Fire Chief Charles Reilley on children playing with matches.

Small Girl Hurt When Her Bike Rams Into Truck

A 7-year-old San Rafael girl on a bicycle suffered leg wounds and possible head injuries last night when she collided with a pickup truck and was tossed to the pavement.

Marguerite Ann Carter, 7, of 338 Dubois street suffered injuries to her left leg and head, and possible internal injuries. She was under treatment today in San Rafael General Hospital.

Driver of the pickup truck, Herbert Pershing Saxton, 40, of 146 Knoll road, San Anselmo, told police he did not see the girl until he heard a thud. He was not cited. Police Lt. Jay H. Fletcher reporter the girl was apparently riding north on Dubois about 5 p.m. and cut across the street in front of the truck.

Woman's Plea To See Slayer Die Refused

Acting Warden Louis Nelson of San Quentin Prison has refused to defy a long-standing precedent and allow the mother of a murderer's victim to witness his execution.

The request of Mrs. Alice Jolliff of Sun Valley to witness the death of Harvey M. Glatman in the San Quentin gas chamber Friday was denied yesterday by Nelson.

He turned down the "very unusual" request saying "women never are permitted to witness executions."

Mrs. Jolliff's daughter, Shirley Ann Bridgeford, 24, was strangled on the desert, one of three young women Glatman was convicted of killing.

Tot Gulps Lighter Fluid, Survives

A 2-year-old San Rafael girl gulped down a can of lighter fluid in her father's store yesterday, but was reported recovered today.

The victim is Michele Hok, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Hok of 2439 Fifth avenue. Hok operates the 188 Variety Store at 871 Fourth street.

Harold Dee Skiles of Santa Rosa, a friend of the Hoks, called the fire department for help about 3:30 p.m. when little Michele collapsed. Her mother took her to the hospital, where her stomach was pumped and she was released in good condition.

Income Lid Undecided At Marin City Housing

Maximum income levels for future tenants of the Marin City low-rent housing apartments have not yet been determined, members of the Marin County Housing Authority were told yesterday at their regular meeting in Marin City.

Bert Klahn, executive director, said "at other housing projects in the San Francisco Bay Area, annual incomes up to $4,000 were normally acceptable in order to be eligible for tenancy. In general, increased income to 25 per cent was permitted before the tenant became ineligible."

Klahn said economists from the U.S. Public Housing Administration are studying the matter and "the basis should be established within a few months."

Problems of sewage disposal at Marin City as well as Hilarita on the Tiburon Peninsula also came in for discussion.

Klahn said the Sausalito-Marin City Sanitary District was insisting that no old lines be used at Marin City.

In the Hilarita sewage problem Klahn said the City of Belvedere had extended to Dec. 1 the date when the city would no longer provide sewer service for the project, suggesting that the former Hilarita septic tank be reactivated.

Klahn said it had been estimated that it would require $32,000 to acquire necessary land to use the tank. He said efforts would be renewed to obtain service from the Tiburon Sanitary District.

Provision for television reception at the Marin City low-rent project also came in for discussion.

Klahn told the commissioners that poor reception in the area would probably require a master antenna system and that some private operator would have to install such a system since it was not covered in plans.

He said that an informal inquiry to one such firm had been made but that "this operator said that it would cost $5 a month for each tenant which would be ridiculous with some tenants paying as little as $29 a month rent."

He said he would investigate further as to what arrangements might be made, emphasizing that all costs would be borne by tenants — not the housing authority.

The commission also:

1. Heard that Marin City has now 674 families, lowest in the history of the project.
2. In accordance with bids received earlier in the day, awarded $2,949,000 in short term notes to Bank of America and the Morgan Guaranty Trust Co. of New York, noting that the average interest rate was 2.9 per cent compared with 1.85 per cent a year ago.
3. Announced that in about six months, a long-term bond issue covering costs of the low-rent housing project would be issued replacing the present and past short-term notes.
4. Heard that the new project is 42 per cent complete.
5. Heard that removal of 43 additional abandoned houses is scheduled to get underway at once.

Sacramento Hands S.F. Licking In Clash Over Stamp

SACRAMENTO (UPI)—Sacramento has given San Francisco a licking in a battle over a postage stamp.

The stamp is one that's to be issued next year commemorating the first pony express run from California to Missouri. Each city wanted the stamp issued from its post office.

San Francisco claimed that the first rider began his run in San Francisco. Sacramento admitted this, but charged that the first ride was merely a publicity stunt and that all the other riders started from here.

Finally, Sacramento Postmaster Kenneth R. Hammaker announced that the government had decided to issue the stamp here.

Express riders carried the mail over the 2,000-mile route from April, 1860, to October, 1861.

Water Users Get Warning Against Waste

Users in the Marin Municipal Water District today were warned to go easy.

"Don't waste water," warned district general manager William R. Seegar.

Seegar said he told the board of directors of the water district last night that if Marin has another winter like the last one, he may have to impose rationing.

He did not say the situation was critical, but he said that the last dry winter was a "rough one." Seegar said rainfall last season was 53 per cent of normal, but runoff was only 40 per cent of normal.

In other matters, the board:

1. Continued its consideration of acquiring additional land for a new water district headquarters in the Fifer Industrial Park at Corte Madera. Seegar said the board still wishes to acquire five acres to add to the three it already has acquired.
2. Accepted final work and filed a notice of completion with the county on the $1.5-million-dollar Bon Tempe treatment plant.
3. Renewed for a year the deer hunting rights of the Big Trees Gun Club for use of the area around Kent Lake.
4. Approved the installation of 300 feet of pipeline in Bret Harte.
5. Awarded Mueller Co. of San Francisco a $28,163 contract for a year's supply of gate valves, and B. Miles Thomas Co. of San Francisco a $7,563 contract to install approximately 1,000 feet of pipeline in Terra Linda.

Supervisors To Discuss County Affairs On Radio

Four members of the Marin County Board of Supervisors will give a "Report to the People" over the Marin Sounding Board program radio station of KTIM from 9 to 10 a.m. tomorrow.

Appearing will be Chairman Walter R. Castro of San Rafael, Mrs. Vera L. Schultz of Mill Valley, William Gnoss of Novato and James A. Marshall of West Marin.

Hugh Turner will be host, replacing Kitty Oppenheimer while she takes a few days of vacation. Questions phoned in during the broadcast will be presented to the panel for further discussion.

The program will be rebroadcast by tape recording at 12:30 p.m. Sunday.

Water Transfer Slated To Continue Till Rains

That big pumper dredge sluicing water for thirsty Marinites from Alpine to Bon Tempe lake won't get its scheduled mid-September vacation.

Prospects are, it was learned today, that work must go on till the rains start in earnest. Despite a daily delivery of as much as six and one-half million gallons, demand from Bon Tempe has run ahead of replenishment during warmer days when as much as eight million gallons went out.

Robert E. Rich, president of Associated Dredging Co. of Sausalito, which has provided the dredge, said that when operations began in early August it was possible to make a maximum daily transfer of water.

But as the water level in Alpine Lake began to go down, the dredge had to be moved away from shore. Now it floats 2,500 feet out.

This means that there is 4,300 feet of pipe, which together with a lift of 125 feet causes back-pressure enough to reduce the earlier six and one-half million gallons a day to four million. But at the same time, cooler weather has reduced demand somewhat.

Only one man is required to oversee the operation of the pump, which is run by electricity delivered by special power line. But it's a round-the-clock job, so three men are assigned.

"They're working seven days a week," said Rich. "Of course the dredge pretty much runs itself but they have to see that everything goes smoothly—that no bearings run hot, for instance. If any repairs are needed they do them."

Original plans were to move 200 million gallons and that has about been accomplished, Rich thinks.

"But while 200 million was what we talked about, that wasn't definite," he said. "As they need more water, we're going on. Could be till late November and the real rains might not start until into December."

SAN DIEGO, Calif. (AP)—A young woman came into the society department of a newspaper to announce her engagement to a man named Bill. She even brought along a picture of herself to run in the paper. Everything seemed to be in good order, except that the picture was inscribed, with all her love, to Johnny.

Drug Suspect Denies Guilt, Out Of Jail

Ronald John Hollingworth, 20, of 131-A Reservoir road, San Rafael, pleaded innocent yesterday to a charge of marijuana possession.

He was released from jail on his own recognizance because he is already under $1,000 bail in San Mateo County on suspicion of narcotics possession there. Judge Harold J. Haley ordered Hollingsworth to appear in court on Sept. 24 to have a date set for a preliminary hearing.

A charge of marijuana possession against Hollingworth's wife, June, was dropped yesterday on the recommendation of Deputy Dist. Atty. Harold F. Wolters. Wolters said evidence was not sufficient to indicate she was connected with possession of the narcotic.

The second man, arrested by San Rafael police, is Vincent Gerald (Buzz) Phillips, 22, of 2015 Fifth avenue, San Rafael. Phillips was arraigned yesterday, and is scheduled to enter his plea on Sept. 24. His bail was set at $750.

TRANQUILIZERS MEAN HAPPIER LIFE FOR HENS

ASHEVILLE, N.C. (AP) — Poultrymen figure they have a remedy now for what bugs the biddies.

Feed them tranquilizers, the Dixie Poultry Exposition was told Tuesday.

Dr. O. E. Goff of the University of Tennessee said experiments showed tranquilizers fed to hens gave them resistance to high temperatures, increased egg quality and contributed to a longer and happier life for the fowl.

Joined Twin Eight

FERRIS, Ill. (AP)—Rodney Dee Brodie, separated from his head-joined twin brother shortly after birth, was 8 years old today. But he wasn't able to run or play games.

Early this year he broke both legs, and only within the last month has his frail 48-pound body been free of casts. Gradually, he is learning to walk again.

Rodney gathered his four sisters and brothers around a lighted birthday cake yesterday but he couldn't stand up to blow out the candles. His face beamed as he tore open dozens of cards, many sent by well wishers who have read of his struggle.

New Trial Set In Child Molest Case

Retired Army M/Sgt. Fritz Kern, 66, of Kentfield, who got off with a hung jury on a charge of child molesting last month, will be re-tried in November.

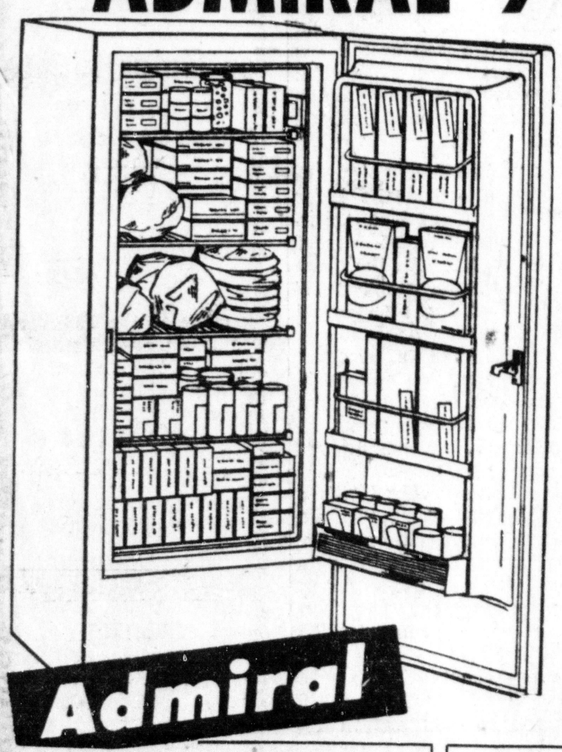

At the request of the district attorney, Judge Harold J. Haley yesterday set Nov. 17 as the date for a new jury trial. The case is expected to take three days.

In the first trial, Asst. Dist. Atty Roger P. Garety and defense attorney Wallace S. Myers battled to a draw when the jurors could not agree on a verdict.

Garety contended that Kern lured an 8-year-old girl into the garage of his home at 22 Maple avenue on April 19 and molested her. Kern vigorously denied molesting the girl in any way. He testified the girl wore scanty clothing, and it was a cold day. He therefore put his cheek to hers, squeezed her, and told her to go home and put on warm clothing.

MADMAN KILLS SIX

Kids Return To Classes At Bombed Texas School

HOUSTON, Tex. (UPI)—Children returned to classes at Edgar A. Poe Elementary School today where a madman bomber turned a play period into a nightmare of horror and left six persons dead and 19 others injured.

Authorities scheduled classes today even though windows in the school were shattered by yesterday's blast that tossed bits of human flesh on children at play.

The madman was Paul Harold Orgeron, a 49-year-old former convict. He carried his bomb in a big black suitcase and apparently touched it off with a timing device he worked with his foot.

Orgeron killed himself, his own 7-year-old son, Paul, two other 7-year-old boys, a school custodian and a school teacher.

He might have killed more but for the quick work of teachers who herded some of the charges back into the building when Orgeron, after trying to gather a group of children around him, yelled that he had a bomb.

One of the 7-year-old boys killed was Johnny C. Fitch, the grandson of Vice Adm. Aubrey W. Fitch who was second in command to the late Adm. William Halsey during the Pacific fighting in World War II.

The other victims were Bill Hawes, 7; custodian James A. Montgomery, 56, and the teacher, Mrs. Jeannie Koulter, 56.

So shattering was the blast that it was several hours before Orgeron's identity could be established by fingerprints on a severed hand found in the schoolyard.

Montgomery's head was blown off when he tried to rush the former convict.

All of the injured were pupils except Mrs. R. E. Doty, the principal. She lost a leg while answering a summons to investigate a scene caused by Orgeron.

Homicide Capt. Weldon Waycott said Orgeron gave no apparent clue as to his intentions when he arrived at the school.

Waycott said his investigation showed that Orgeron arrived at the principal's office with his son and the black suitcase. He attempted to enroll his son in school but was told by Mrs. Doty that he would have to produce a health certificate since the boy had not attended there before.

Orgeron, according to Waycott, said he would come back the next day with the certificate. He didn't appear irrational at the time.

But, by the time he reached the schoolyard, he began ranting and told a teacher he had a bomb in his suitcase.

"Stay away from here or I'll blow you to pieces," witnesses said Orgeron yelled just before the rattling explosion.

Nursery School For Retarded Children To Open

The nursery school operated by the Marin Assn. for Retarded Children at Arequipa will begin its fourth year Monday.

Mrs. Ruth Decker will return as teacher. Eight youngsters not yet ready for public school special classes are enrolled for the sessions, to be held 9 a.m. to noon, Mondays through Fridays.

Additional youngsters could benefit from the training if they had transportation to and from the school, located on Sir Francis Drake boulevard near Fairfax, according to Mrs. Kellogg Smith, 150 Spencer avenue, Sausalito, nursery school chairman. She said volunteer drivers are needed, especially for children from the northern part of the county.

Husband Of Kentfield Woman Gets High Post

Lt. Col. James E. Hurley Jr., whose wife is the former Janet Anderson of Kentfield, has been assigned as assistant chief of staff at Headquarters 1st Region, Army Air Defense Command, at Ft. Totten, N. Y.

The region has Nike bases deployed in strategic areas in New York, New Jersey and New England.

Marinites Capture Honors In Parade

Marinita Parlor 198 of the Native Daughters of the Golden West and Mt. Tamalpais Parlor 64 of the Native Sons of the Golden West won first prizes for the best combined unit and fourth prizes for the best float in the Admission Day parade in Santa Rosa.

Members represented an old fashioned school with a float depicting a school house. Women wore long skirts and middy blouses. Men wore short pants. Some of the members skated and others rode scooters.

In all, 36 members attended the parade, and later enjoyed a barbecue.

54TH BIRTHDAY OBSERVED BY HOSPITAL

Patients at San Rafael General Hospital today each received a miniature birthday cake with "54" written across the top in frosting.

The cakes were served in observance of the hospital's 54th anniversary.

Incorporation papers for San Rafael Cottage Hospital, now San Rafael General, were filed on Sept. 16, 1905, by its three founders, Drs. William Farrington Jones, H.O. Howitt and William J. Wickman, prominent physicians of that day.

The hospital has been a voluntary non-profit institution since Jan. 1, 1958.

In observance of the anniversary, the hospital and its Women's Auxiliary will be saluted next Tuesday at a luncheon at Rickey's Rancho Rafael, Ignacio.

S.F. Man Fined For Drunk Driving Offense

Einar Sodring Kruse, 33, of San Francisco must pay a $150 fine and remain on probation for one year for his first drunken driving offense.

Judge Harold J. Haley sentenced him in Marin Municipal Court. Kruse was caught on Redhill avenue in San Anselmo on Sept. 6.

Missile Bearing Mice, Frogs Blows Apart

CAPE CANAVERAL, Fla. (AP)—A Jupiter missile carrying 14 pregnant mice and two frogs exploded today 10 seconds after launching.

The shot was to have been a test of the effects of space flight on the tiny animals and several other biological samples packed in the nose cone.

The would-be space travelers met a fiery death when the Jupiter blew apart about 1,000 feet in the air.

Pieces of the vehicle fell back on the launching area but no one in the area was hurt.

The 60-foot rocket rose from its pad at 6:45 a.m.

The Department of Defense announced that the range safety officer deliberately destroyed the big missile when his instruments detected a malfunction.

The Jupiter was to have carried its flying menagerie some 300 miles into space and 1,500 miles down the Atlantic missile range. Ships and planes waited near the West Indies island of Antigua hoping to recover the nose cone and its precious cargo.

The National Aeronautics and Space Administration said the purpose of the test was to study the effect of space flight on various biological systems. The information would help prepare the way for manned space journeys.

POLICE POWERLESS

N.Y. Gangs Have Easy Time Getting Weapons

NEW YORK (UPI) — Deadly weapons are on sale to teenagers in every neighborhood in New York City. Police dealing with juvenile violence are powerless to halt the supply.

The litter of lethal weapons cast away at juvenile gang fights when the police arrive can include guns, switchblade knives, brass knuckles, chain lengths, pipes and a wide variety of homemade daggers, spears and razor-tipped sticks.

Teen gang warriors usually are careful about carrying guns because possession of a pistol without a license is illegal in New York and carries an automatic felony charge. Possession of a rifle without a license is legal for citizens over 16, but they are too bulky to sneak through the streets to an appointed "rumble," the juvenile term for a gang fight.

Guns also are relatively expensive and unless stolen their ownership is easily traced.

But the supply of knives in neighborhood variety stores could dazzle the imagination of a bandit. And if they are not available in stores, certain magazines popular with teen-agers carry advertisements offering them by mail along with brassknuckles and blackjacks.

Surveys have revealed that approximately 90 per cent of the switchblade knives sold are bought by youths between the ages of 11 and 20. Most are purchased by youngsters under 16.

Although sale of switchblade and gravity knives has been outlawed in New York, they are readily available outside the city. The quickly operated gravity knife has a blade which drops with the flick of the wrist.

The ingenuity of a determined adolescent bent on creating a deadly weapon is amazing. A recent rage is the conversion of pistols used as starting guns at sporting events into bullet-firing weapons. Sale of starting guns is unrestricted.

A length of small bore pipe or tubing, a rubber band powered firing pin and a .22 cartridge can form the ingredients of a lethal if crude looking zip gun.

State and federal officials have been asked to work on legislation calling for more control on the shipment and sale of guns, knives and ammunition in an attempt to crack down on their use by gang members.

Legislation also is sought to make it easier to prosecute youths for possession of weapons. It is a common trick to throw away a weapon when approached by a policeman to get around the present law which only covers possession. Police want a law broadening unlawful possession to weapons found in the immediate vicinity of a suspect.

EX-POLICEMAN CAN'T ESCAPE FROM CRIME

FLORENCE, S.C. (AP)—Policeman Vandroth Backus, 34, turned in his gun and badge yesterday after nine years on the force, to begin a new life in the ministry.

On his way home from the police station, Backus spotted a burglary suspect carrying clothing. Hailed by the ex-officer, the man fled. Backus summoned a policeman and apprehended the man along with other stolen goods.

Coast Guard Unit Selects Officers

Forest Sur of Mill Valley has been elected commander of Flotilla 14 of the Coast Guard Auxiliary.

Others named were Charles A. Manning, San Rafael, vice commander; Charles Boynton, San Rafael, first training officer; James J. Levensaler, Kentfield, second training officer; Arthur E. Anderberg, San Francisco, secretary-treasurer; and Frank C. Kugelberg, and Abe Blumenfeld, San Rafael, and Harry Heifetz, Fairfax, and Sterling Phillips, San Anselmo, directors.

10 Appointments To County Posts Approved By Board

Ten appointments, five of which were for junior appraisers in the office of the county assessor, were approved yesterday by the Marin County Board of Supervisors. The board also approved three promotions and a re-classification.

The new junior appraisers, all at salary rate of $376 and three to fill vacancies, are Richard M. Bergmann, Kenneth V. Dawson Jr., William D. Hassler, Wilfred L. Spence and Raymond M. Ogata.

Hassler will take a position to be vacated by Robert Trumbull on Sept. 30, and Spence, a position vacated by Glenn H. Murray through withdrawal of application.

Other appointments were:

Evelyn Ferestad, intermediate typist clerk, $295, in office of tax collector-treasurer; position vacated by Florence Fontez, promoted.

Francine Mendell, homemaker, $295, welfare office; a provisional state merit system appointment.

Smith Lovies, janitor, $281, hospital and farm; position vacated by Erwin Little, resigned.

Pauline Clayton, registered nurse, $341, hospital and farm; position vacated by Ruth Hasson, resigned.

Promotions and re-classification included:

Edward O. Gwynn, auditing appraiser, promoted to senior auditing appraiser at $530, in assessor's office; existing vacancy.

Jean Simontacchi, intermediate account clerk with tax collector-treasurer, re-classified to intermediate stenographer clerk, $325; position vacated by Gloria Tillet, resigned.

Florence Fontez, intermediate typist-clerk with tax collector-treasurer, promoted to intermediate account clerk, $325; position vacated by Jean Simontacchi.

June Erdman, senior typist clerk with planning commission, promoted to principal clerk, $395; existing vacancy.

Knoxville, Tenn., was named after Gen. Henry Knox, Secretary of War in 1791.

Grandfather Pleads Guilty In Rape Case

A Southern Marin grandfather, who posed as a family friend and "second father" to a 14-year-old girl, pleaded guilty yesterday to two counts of statutory rape of the girl.

Stanley Milton Trayner, 43, of 125 Richardson drive, Strawberry, a plumbing supplies salesman, is in Marin County Jail to await a probation report and sentencing on Oct. 5. Statutory rape carries a penalty ranging from not more than one year in county jail to 50 years in prison.

The girl, who attends Tamalpais High School, told the Marin County Grand Jury she had been intimate with Trayner for about two years, sometimes as often as two or three times per week.

Trayner was arrested last June and pleaded innocent to the charge. Yesterday, he appeared before Judge Jordan L. Martinelli in Marin Superior Court and admitted being intimate with the girl in January and June of this year.

sonal effort to pass this issue."

Mrs. William Davies, a member of the home owners association which opposed the project, said she was "delighted" at the results of the election. "It is most gratifying to the many people who worked so diligently and long. It is rewarding to learn that our very sincere efforts were not wasted. We want to thank our supporters," she added.

Cmdr. Clayton Ernst, a member of the home owners association, said the group was now very much interested in seeing that other plans are developed for recreation in Terra Linda. "They will cooperate with the services district in this regard, but of course the primary responsibility still rests with the district's board of directors," he said.

Allied Arts Meeting

Airmen Hurt When Cycle Strikes Car

Two Hamilton Air Force Base airmen were in hospitals today after the motorcycle they were riding crashed into a moving car on the base yesterday.

A/2c Jimmy R. C. Lee, 23, driver of the 'cycle, was reported in good condition at Letterman Army Hospital in San Francisco where he was taken with a fractured right wrist and cut fingers.

A/2c Johnny Larsen, 25, the rider, was also in good condition at the Hamilton Base hospital. He suffered multiple bruises and scratches on his arms and legs.

Both are members of the 78th Armaments and Electronics Squadron on the base. Their southbound 'cycle crashed at 5:30 p.m. into a car driven by A/2c Melvin Abramovitz, 21, of the 78th Fighter Wing Headquarters, who was making a left turn from North State access road to the base finance building, the base provost marshal reported.

committee for the long and hard work they did in seeking approval of the bonds.

"Naturally, there has been no discussion as yet as to what the trustees' next step will be to solve the school room problem."

Total vote by precinct was: Old Mill School, 386 "yes" to 159 "no"; city hall, 299-156; Outdoor Art Club, 210-145; Park School, 251-170; Alto School, 220-128; Tamalpais Valley School, 103-75; Homestead School 202-111; Strawberry School, 301-160; Legion Hall, 187-182; Almonte Improvement Club, 205-98; Tamalpais Valley Improvement Club, 123-124.

There were 40 absentee ballots, which will be included in the canvass of votes by the trustees at their Sept. 22 meeting. The absentee ballots cannot change the outcome.

Novato Men Planning Trail Ride To Nicasio

An overnight horseback trail ride from Novato to Nicasio and back Sept. 26 and 27 is being organized by Novato residents Sam Thomas and Keith Craig, both California Highway Patrol officers.

The riders will leave Craig's residence, 655 McClay road, at 10:30 a.m. Sept. 26 and will arrive that evening at Rancho Nicasio for dinner and entertainment. The mounted group will return to Novato early the next day.

RUSSIA

long term they don't believe in co-existence.

"To them, by the way, there are only two countries on earth—the U.S.S.R. and U.S.A. All others are unimportant. They see us as their great competitor. In consumer goods they're so far behind it's like a pro football team against a junior team, but they plan to catch up.

"On a strong socialist basis already, they look to a day when Utopia will come at their supreme point in history when they will be a truly communistic nation. If this works out there is trouble ahead for all free people.

"But I believe human beings have their frailties, that profit and bonus incentives may build individualism even in the Soviet Union. Communism will fail if individualism rears its head. They may be sowing a seed which will defeat itself."

The group flew into Moscow, then to Leningrad, by jet plane to Kiev, back to Moscow. Well, received everywhere, they ran into no big problem of getting what they wanted, though sometimes it took time.

Brantman is president of Allied Western Distributors in San Francisco. It was his job to check up on the Russian pots-and-pans situation, which he found "unsophisticated."

"By a sophisticated pot I mean something with good looks that would appeal to an American," he explained. "We've gotten away from the plain old pot. In Russia they're not at that stage."

Meeting the president of the export company dealing in sundries, Brantman saw a wide range of goods and wound up with a purchase—probably the only one made by anybody in the party, he thinks—including samovars and trays. Everything he saw could be bought by Russians in their shops, but the sample samovars were of superior finish, he reported.

"I feel that what I get will be up to sample," he said. "They are basically honest and putting their best foot forward for export."

Everything you see in Russia is from Russia or likeminded countries such as China, according to Brantman. He noted "beautiful cloisonne" and Astrakian hats out of Red China but he couldn't have brought them home due to official ban.

"Coffee was a surprise," said Brantman. "Contrary to what we'd been told, it was freely available everywhere, and good—more like American coffee than any in Europe. It was their own blend, too."

Brantman's fellow-Marinite Lucas, who is treasurer of the Folger Coffee Co. in San Francisco, took 48 jars of instant coffee with him. It is Brantman's impression that this stock was little drawn upon. (Inquiry today at Lucas' office disclosed that though he has been sending post cards, none has dealt with the question of what happened to his travel stock of coffee.)

"Service was about the worst you could imagine, for speed," Brantman commented. "There was plenty of help but the service was always abominably slow."

Guide Dog, Master Hit By Vehicle

A blind World War II veteran and the Guide Dog with which he graduated nine years ago from Guide Dogs for the Blind were struck by a car today in an Alameda crosswalk.

The man, William LeRoy Walker, 39, of Alameda, was seriously injured, suffering a possible skull fracture. The dog, a 12-year-old boxer named Princess, was killed.

The motorist, Melvin Robinson, 22, of Alameda, stationed at Moffett Naval Air Station, was cited for violating a pedestrian right of way.

A witness said the man and his dog were standing at the curb at Alameda street and Lincoln avenue when the dog suddenly bolted into the middle of the street and sat down, United Press International reported. Walker groped his way after the dog. He had just reached him when both were struck.

Walker was blinded during World War II Army service in Alaska, but the blindness was not service-connected, according to records at Guide Dogs for the Blind in San Rafael. He and the dog were graduated from the Guide Dogs school on Sept. 23, 1950. Walker was employed as an engine repairman at Alameda Naval Air Station.

Court Dismisses Battery Charge

Juanita Musson of Juanita's Galley in Sausalito, was freed in Marin Municipal Court yesterday of charges of battery of two military policemen.

At the request of Deputy Dist. Atty. Bruce Bales, Judge Harold J. Haley dropped the charge.

Bales said the military policemen who originally complained do not wish to press the matter. He said evidence shows no one was hurt and there was no big fracas.

The incident occurred at the restaurant last July when John Hogan, 21, and Kenneth Krebs, 24, stationed at the Presidio, started into the wrong restroom by mistake. Juanita ushered them out.

Sausalito To Eye Purchase Of Play Area

A recommendation by the recreation commission that the City of Sausalito acquire a nine-acre parcel of waterfront property for recreation purposes is slated to be discussed by the city council at its Sept. 22 meeting, according to City Manager Donald A. Duerr.

At its August meeting, the recreation commission suggested purchase of the property on the waterfront between Litho and Napa streets. About a third of the property is filled, including a partially-completed breakwater which forms a lagoon.

Recreation chairman John Minton, in recommending acquisition of the property to replace the sandspit, reported that owner Walter Kieckhofer of Kent Woodlands has an asking price of $175,000 on the property. Minton urged immediate consideration of the proposal. Waterfront restaurateur Sam Zakessian is reported to have an option on the property which expires about Oct. 1.

said that the report given the board yesterday does not contain any charge of cruelty.

Yesterday, Jordan said the name of the persons accused need not be given out under provisions of the Brown Act, and added that he did not think the board even had to announce an executive session. He said this was based on an opinion from the state attorney general's office.

An amendment to the Brown Act, approved by the last legislature, provides that executive sessions by public bodies to hear complaints or charges, are to be held during a "regular or special meeting."

The law requires public bodies to advertise the times and places of meetings.

The amendment signed by Gov. Edmund G. Brown, does not become law until Friday.

MARIN FIRE CALLS

YESTERDAY:

1:21 p.m., Hamilton Air Force Base—Fire engines and ambulance stood by for T33 jet trainer landing without radio contact; landing made safely.

2:10 p.m., Marin City—Grass fire on hill near water tank above Marin City extinguished after burning one and one-half acres; children with matches suspected.

2:26 p.m., Tennessee Valley—Brush and grass fire over 15 acres on Tennessee Valley road fought by Tamalpais Valley and Marin County Fire Departments; controlled after three hours; boys burning out wood rats, apparent cause; no damage.

5:55 p.m., Marin City—Burning mattress near Unit C49 started by children playing with matches; extinguished without structural damage.

8:20 p.m., Marin City—Tanker units called to stand by at Tennessee Valley.

1-Vehicle Pileup In Kentfield

Four eastbound vehicles collided end-to-end at 9 a.m. yesterday on Sir Francis Drake boulevard just west of Wolfe grade in Kentfield and one driver complained of pain but did not require emergency treatment.

The injured driver was Anthony Scardaci, 45, of 102 Brookside drive, San Anselmo. His car was struck in the rear by a pickup truck driven by Erna S. Tourney, 40-year-old housewife of 201 Kent avenue, Kentfield, reported California Highway Patrol Officer James Greer. Scardaci's car was pushed into the rear of the stopped car of Jean Marian MacKinnon of 15 Broadmoor avenue, San Anselmo.

Dr. George H. Merryman Jr., 46, of 201 S. Ridgewood, Kentfield, said he was unable to stop in time to avoid the three-car collision and his auto hit the rear of Mrs. Tourney's pickup truck.

Council To Meet At Mill Valley

A hearing on Mill Valley's long-pending master recreation plan, approval of an agreement to remove abandoned railroad rails adjacent to Miller avenue at Tamalpais High School, and authorization to remove the old Blithedale trestle are scheduled at tonight's meeting of the Mill Valley City Council.

In a "pre-council" meeting at 7:30 p.m., City Engineer Albert H. Siemer is scheduled to discuss some of the city's drainage problems.

Visitors Hurt In Car Mishap

Leland E. Thomas and his wife, Elizabeth, both 30, visiting Marin from Seattle, were painfully but not seriously injured about 11:30 last night when their car overturned on Miller avenue at the entrance to Mill Valley, pinning Thomas under the car and throwing his wife to the pavement.

Police said this morning there were no details on the mishap but that a full report is expected later in the day. Apparently the car went out of control as there was no collision involved.

The two were taken to Marin General Hospital by the Mill Valley Fire Department Ambulance where Mrs. Thomas was admitted for treatment of cuts. Her condition was "good" today. Thomas was treated for bruises and released.

Marinite To Lead Honor Orchestra

Hugo Rinaldi, director of music for the San Rafael city schools, on leave of absence at Stanford University, has been invited to conduct the honor orchestra from Stanislaus County schools, Jan. 30.

The honor orchestra is composed of outstanding students from the 10 schools within Stanislaus County.

The occasion is the yearly music festival. Some 100 outstanding student musicians, comprise the honor orchestra.

Novato Trustees Selecting Firm To Plan Schools

A review of architectural firms, expected to result in selection of a firm to plan future construction in the Novato Unified School District, was begun by the board of trustees at a special meeting last night.

Representatives of three firms appeared before the board to outline services and experience. Each reported that his firm requires a "standard" fee of 8 per cent of final construction costs.

Trustees emphasized that the review does not reflect on the ability of the firm of Reid, Rockwell, Banwell and Taricsu of San Francisco, now under contract for Novato school designs.

That firm, and two others, Corlett and Spackman and Callister and Rosse of San Francisco, were represented last night.

Several other firms will be reviewed before any final selection is made, said Supt. William J. J. Smith.

4-H Council Plans To Fete Advisers

A potluck supper will highlight the first Marin 4-H Council meeting Sept. 29 at 7:30 p.m. in the Marion Street School, Novato.

The supper will honor former 4-H adviser William G. Schneeflock, and the new adviser, Don Brittsan.

Appropriations By Congress Set Record For Peace Year

WASHINGTON (AP) — The 1959 Congress voted the biggest peacetime appropriations total in history.

In only four previous years —two during World War II and two during the Korean War—has the money total exceeded the $81,975,368,352 Congress approved in the session ended yesterday. The amount exceeded by a small margin the previous peacetime record of $81,119,818,276 voted in the 1958 session.

Even so, the legislators cut President Eisenhower's requests this year by $1,881,000,000, or slightly more than 2 per cent of the total.

The Democratic-controlled Congress succeeded in whacking something off every money bill of the 1959 session but one, in an effort to blunt Republican charges the Democrats are wild spenders.

By far the biggest cut was the $1,204,000,000 slashed from foreign aid, the program which Eisenhower made the strongest effort to save from heavy reductions. This included 500 million dollars in development loan funds for the year starting next July 1 which was denied, but which will come up again next year.

The only years in which the appropriations total exceeded 1959 figures were 1942, when 147 billion was voted, 1943, with a 115-billion total, 1951, with 101 billion, and 1952, with 86 billion.

This year's allotments continued the upward trend of every year of the Eisenhower administration except the first and second. During those years Republicans controlled Congress. Appropriations totaled 65 billion dollars in 1953, dropped to 58 billion in 1954, and have mounted steadily since.

MEDICAL CHIEF SAYS ELDERLY WANT HELP, BUT NO HANDOUTS

SEATTLE (AP) — Elderly people want a helping hand but not a handout, in the opinion of the American Medical Assn.

The medical aspect is only one segment of the problem of growing old, Dr. E. Vincent Askey of Los Angeles told the Washington State Medical Assn. yesterday.

It is society's responsibility, he suggested, to stimulate in older people that intangible quality called the will to live.

"I have seen people with this quality survive illnesses against which they seemed to have little chance. I have seen people without this quality die long before they should."

A majority of the aged has no desire to be wards of anyone, said Dr. Askey. He asserted that federal legislation to provide medical care for the aged could put them "in a state of semi-permanent dependence on the federal government."

LOOT WORTH $640,000

Art Masterpieces Stolen From Gallery In Canada

TORONTO, Canada (AP)—Officials expressed belief today that knowledge of the Toronto Art Gallery's burglar alarm system enabled thieves to make off with $640,000 worth of masterpieces.

"There were literally dozens of times when someone who didn't know how the system operated would have set it off," said the gallery director, Martin Baldwin.

During Monday night's robbery, one of the thieves tried to cut the center panel out of a fire door, apparently aware the alarm system would not go off if the door was opened.

Stolen were two Rembrandts valued at $150,000 and $250,000, two Frans Hals paintings worth $120,000 and $80,000, one Rubens at $20,000 and a Renoir at $20,000.

Three Marinites Hurt In Head-On Collision

Three men were injured at 7:30 a.m. today when two cars collided head-on in front of the Fireside Motel in Mill Valley. All three were released from Marin General Hospital after emergency treatment.

Gordon Johnson, 38, a Stinson Beach research chemist who helped develop the fiberglass used in the body of his 1959 Corvette, was headed east on Shoreline highway. He turned left to follow Shoreline to northbound lanes of Highway, according to California Highway Patrol Officer Richard O'Brien.

Walter Eisenegger, 27, of 530 Manzanita avenue, Corte Madera, was westbound on Shoreline highway, on his own side of the roadway, and his car was struck head-on by Johnson's car, Officer O'Brien reported.

Eisenegger suffered a scalp laceration and injury to his right leg. Johnson received a torn lip and bruises of his knees. Officer O'Brien said Johnson's injuries would have been more severe is he had not been using a seat belt.

Also injured was Gary Dye, 22, of 28 Monte Vista, Larkspur, a passenger in Eisenegger's car, who suffered bruises of his arms and hands. He and Eisenegger are telephone linemen.

STOCKS TODAY

NEW YORK (AP)—Most early gains were shaved as the stock market displayed an irregular pattern at the close today.

Volume for the day was estimated at 2,200,000 shares compared with 2,830,000 yesterday.

Key stocks rose from fractions to about a point. There were assorted losers.

Automotive shares were active. American Motors gained well over a point.

Up around a point were Schenley, Texas Instruments, Republic Steel, Goodyear and Woolworth. Air Reduction stretched a gain beyond a point.

Hearing Slated On Bridge Limits

A public hearing to determine whether a load limit or speed limit (or both) is necessary on the Stemple Creek bridge north of Dillon Beach is scheduled for Sept. 30 at 2 p.m. in the chambers of the county board of supervisors in the county courthouse.

The supervisors set the hearing yesterday after hearing a report from Public Works Director Marvin W. Brigham that state highway engineers had recommended a load limit of three tons gross to be in effect for two years.

Shop Center Celebrating 1st Birthday

Corte Madera Shopping Center's four-day first anniversary celebration got under way today with a birthday cake-cutting ceremony in the center arcade. It will be climaxed Saturday with the offering of $3,500 worth of free gifts.

The huge cake, a replica of the sprawling multi-million-dollar center, was made by Lady Baltimore Bakery, one of the center's 29 commercial establishments.

Frank Rusalem, developer of Corte Madera center, cut the first slice.

After the ceremony, attended by business and civic leaders, free cake, ice cream and coffee were served to the public.

During the birthday fete, all Corte Madera center stores are conducting an anniversary sale. The bargain event will continue through Saturday.

Center stores will remain open until 9 p.m., today, tomorrow and Friday.

At 8 p.m. tomorrow a square dance exhibition will be given on the shopping center mall by the Cornhuskers and Top Hands square dance groups of Larkspur and San Anselmo, respectively. Gordon Collins will be the caller.

Nearly 900 table tennis balls, each numbered and each worth a valuable prize, will be rained on the shopping center from a low-flying helicopter at 11 a.m. Saturday. Persons skillful enough to grab one of the little white spheres may redeem it for a gift.

Meeting Canceled

Last night's scheduled meeting of the Larkspur Planning Commission was canceled because of lack of a quorum. The commission's next regular meeting will be held at 8 p.m., Oct. 6, in Larkspur City Hall.

Lagunitas Meeting

Trustees of the Lagunitas School District will discuss curriculum guides, public relations and lunch facilities when they meet at 8 p.m. tomorrow at Lagunitas School.

Death Report Was Greatly Exaggerated

An anonymous telephone caller reported the death of a television repairman in Strawberry Monday night, but the man turned up very much alive while sheriff's deputies and the coroner were looking for the "body."

Victim of the prank is W. L. Kirby, 26, of 121 Ricardo road, Strawberry.

About 8:15 p.m., the county coroner got a call from a male voice which said: "Go to 121 Ricardo road and you will find the body of W. L. Kirby."

Deputy Sheriff Frederick Marcus and coroner's deputies arrived at the house about 8:30 and found the home dark. No one was home. They entered through a kitchen window. Near the telephone in the kitchen was a note which said, "Honey, I was bored to death so I went for a ride."

As officers were preparing to leave, Kirby arrived home. Kirby said he has no idea who would pull such a prank on him.

Twin Cities Delay Merger Meeting

A meeting of the joint Larkspur-Corte Madera merger committee, scheduled for tonight, has been postponed until next Wednesday at 8 p.m. in Larkspur City Hall.

Statistical reports on the Twin Cities, containing 1958-59 figures, will be discussed at the session. The data is being prepared by City Managers Ronald E. Piper of Larkspur and Arthur H. Brandow of Corte Madera.

The managers said Mayor Roger F. Morse of Corte Madera requested postponement of tonight's meeting so committee members would have an opportunity to study the written data in advance.

Printer Succumbs After Long Illness

Anthony (Slick) Miller, 67, of 854 Rosal way, San Rafael, died yesterday afternoon at a local hospital after long illness.

He was a printer for the Santa Rosa Press-Democrat and a member of the International Typographical Union.

A widower, Miller is survived by a daughter, Grace Miller of San Francisco.

He was a native of Nevada, Mo., but came to California 30 years ago. He moved to San Rafael from Santa Rosa five months ago.

Funeral services will be held at 2 p.m. tomorrow at the Welti Chapel of Roses, Santa Rosa. Burial will be in Santa Rosa.

OBITUARIES

Janice Nock Dies After Long Illness

Janice Alicia Nock, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William S. Nock, died today at her home at 1218 Grand avenue, San Rafael, after an illness of almost a year.

Her father is a former longtime mayor of San Rafael.

Miss Nock was a native of San Rafael and was an advertising consultant here.

She was a graduate of Dominican Upper and Lower Schools and College of Marin, where she was editor of the Mariner, school paper. She also attended Stanford University. She was a member of the Dominican College Alumnae.

She compiled and edited a Western roll of honor of horses in 11 Western states for Horse World national magazine. She was an active horsewoman.

A Requiem High Mass will be sung at 9:30 a.m. Monday at St. Raphael's Church. The cortege will form at Keaton's Mortuary, San Rafael, at 9:15 a.m. Interment will be in Golden Gate National Cemetery, San Bruno, at 11:15 a.m. The Rosary will be recited at 8 p.m. Sunday.

Services Held For Charles F. Krantz

Funeral services were held Sunday at Chapel of the Hills in San Anselmo for Charles F. Krantz, 78, a painter and cultivator of orchids. He died Friday at a San Rafael hospital.

Krantz, a resident of Fairfax for 15 years, was noted for romantic paintings of scenes in Golden Gate Park, and for flowers and landscapes in Marin.

He won the Oakland Art Gallery gold medal in 1926 for an exhibition of paintings of orchids, and his paintings have been exhibited at the Palace of the Legion of Honor, San Francisco.

Entombment was in Oakland. His name previously had been erroneously reported at Franz.

Gallagher Rites Set For Friday

Funeral services will be held in San Francisco Friday morning for Patrick Joseph Gallagher, 74, who died unexpectedly yesterday afternoon at his San Rafael home.

Gallagher, a retired San Francisco police officer, collapsed apparently from a heart attack, while cutting his back lawn at 60 Glenaire drive about 2:45 p.m.

His daughter, Mrs. Irene Tarrant of the same address, called for help when she spotted him face down in the yard.

Requiem High Mass is set for 9 a.m. Friday at the Most Holy Redeemer Church at 18th and Diamond streets, San Francisco. Interment will be in Holy Cross Cemetery, Colma. The Rosary will be recited at 8 p.m. tomorrow at Duggan's Funeral Home, 3434 17th street, San Francisco.

Gallagher retired in 1947 as San Francisco police officer after serving for about 35 years. He was a member of Most Holy Redeemer Church and the Mayo Men's Benevolent Assn. in San Francisco.

He was a native of County Mayo, Ireland.

He had lived in San Rafael for four years with his wife, Norah, who survives him. Also surviving are three sons and two daughters, Marin Sheriff's Deputy John J. Gallagher, Thomas Gallagher of Alameda, William Gallagher and Mrs. Catherine Walsh of San Francisco and Mrs. Tarrant of San Rafael.

CROSBY SEES HIS FIRST DAUGHTER

Sporting an "It's a girl" button on his shirt, Bing Crosby takes a look at his first daughter in Hollywood's Queen of the Angels Hospital. "She's got more hair than I have," remarked the crooner of little Mary Frances, born Monday to Crosby's wife, Kathy. Bing has four sons by his first marriage and one by his second.

Terra Linda District Accepts Firehouse Bid

The Terra Linda Community Services District last night accepted the $835 low bid of Ghilotti Brothers Inc., San Rafael, for paving the firehouse floor and driveway.

Fire Chief Richard Flaherty reported the estimate of expenditure for completion of the second half of the firehouse was about $3,200, including the concrete work.

He said he had approached several contractors about the work and hoped to have bids by the next meeting.

Unsuccessful bidders on the paving work were Charles Maine, $842, and Ceccotti and Son of Marin, Inc., $1,000.

Flaherty also reported the volunteer firemen had given 171 man-hours to training in the last eight days.

John P. Namle, district president, expressed appreciation to the volunteers for doing a "tremendous and community-spirited job."

The directors announced a special meeting Sept. 21 at 8 p.m. in Hoffman School to canvass the votes and open absentee ballots cast in yesterday's recreation bond issue election and to pass a resolution declaring the outcome of the election.

Measles Top Marin Diseases Last Week

Measles continued to hold top spot in Marin County's total of 13 cases of communicable diseases reported last week, with five measles reports—two in San Rafael, one in Mill Valley, one in Kentfield and one in unincorporated area.

Novato had three cases of strep infection, and with one in Mill Valley this ailment ran second with a total of four.

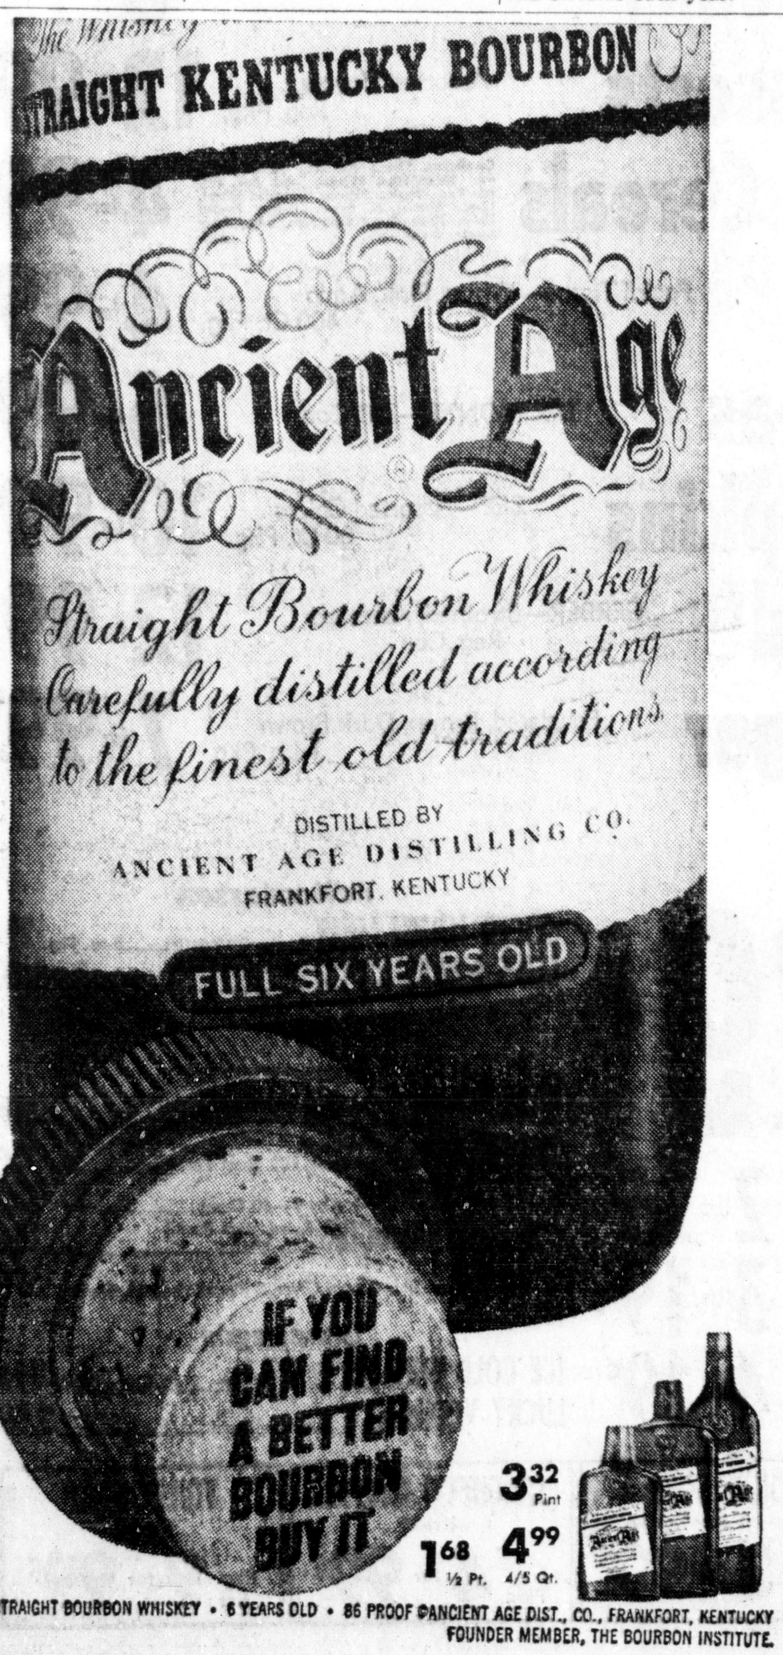

Legionnaires Reassured On Dances

Members of Mill Valley's American Legion Post were told by their commander at Monday night's meeting that teen-age dances recently held at the building had no official connection with the post and that the post was in no way responsible for policing.

Post commander Malcolm C. Piper pointed out that "not only does the post have no official connection, but in addition, the promoter of recent dances had agreed to provide adequate private policing."

After a recent dance at the hall, Police Chief James McGowan recommended to the city council that no future permit be granted as his department was inadequately staffed to cope with the possible magnitude of trouble at such events.

Meeting Slated On Signs At Corte Madera

The Corte Madera Planning Commission will hold a special meeting Sept. 30 on the design of two community directional signs proposed by James Stockman for erection by Highway 101 at the town limits.

Stockman, proprietor of the Edgewater Inn, and Bob Campbell, proprietor of Bob's of Marin restaurant, have been given until Oct. 10 to remove two illegal directional signs advertising their establishments.

EXCEED LIMITS

Both existing signs, which stand by the highway, exceed the size requirements of the town zoning ordinance. Their removal was ordered by the town council.

Stockman suggested to the planning commission this week that two directional signs of a community nature be erected at the north and south ends of town.

"The idea," said Commission Chairman John Adlard, "is to eliminate the necessity for a whole mess of advertising signs."

As proposed by Stockman, the community signs would say: "Welcome to Corte Madera. Shopping, motels and restaurants. Turn right at overpass. 12 minutes to San Francisco."

WANTS OPINION

Adlard said the commission wants to get the reaction of merchants of Corte Madera Center and the downtown business district before acting on the proposal.

The Sept. 30 special meeting will be held in Corte Madera Town Hall, starting at 8 p.m.

The U.S. Navy's 10-million-dollar base at Cartagena, Spain, also is supplied by one of the most modern oil refineries in Europe. The refinery, producing 80,000 barrels daily, is jointly owned by Spanish and American interests.

COUNTY OF MARIN,
STATE OF CALIFORNIA
MARINERO IMPROVEMENT DISTRICT

NOTICE OF RECORDING OF ASSESSMENT

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that on the 8 day of September, 1959, there was recorded in the office of the County Surveyor of the County of Marin (i) an assessment levied upon all that property in an assessment district in the County of Marin, State of California, designated Marinero Improvement District, comprising the territory described and provided for in Resolution of Intention No. 5843 duly adopted by the Board of Supervisors of said County of Marin on June 30, 1959, wherein it declared its intention to order certain work to be done and acquisitions and improvements to be made in said County of Marin in said Marinero Improvement District, all in accordance with said Resolution of Intention to which reference is hereby made, and (ii) a diagram showing said Marinero Improvement District and the boundaries and dimensions of the lands within said District.

All sums assessed by said assessment are due and payable immediately and the payment of said sums is to be made to the County Tax Collector at his office in the City of San Rafael, Marin County, State of California, on or before the close of business on October 8, 1959 (except as the right to pay within such time has been waived by property owners).

NOTICE IS FURTHER GIVEN that serial bonds payable to bearer to represent unpaid assessments of $50 or more and to bear interest at the maximum rate of not to exceed 6% a year payable semi-annually will be issued in the manner provided by Division 7 of the California Streets and Highways Code, the Improvement Act of 1911, and said bonds shall extend over a period not to exceed 9 years from the second day of January next succeeding the next October 15th following their date.

Dated: September 8, 1959.

It's a good thing that

Tide keeps on working after other suds have quit!

Sooner or later other suds tire out in your washer. They slow down . . . quit. But Tide keeps on working after other suds have quit. Tide is tireless.

If you've seen the test (left) on TV, you know just how hard Tide works. It keeps on eating up dirt long after the other suds are all . . . tired . . . out.

And doesn't it make sense that the one that works the hardest is the one that gets your wash the cleanest?

Tireless Tide for the cleanest clean there is!

Tax Exemption Perjury Suspect Found Guilty

Raymond Low of 691 Barberry lane, Terra Linda, who owns an apartment in San Francisco, was found guilty yesterday of giving false information to get veteran's tax exemption in Marin.

Judge Richard M. Sims of Marin Municipal Court set 4 p.m. Sept. 30 as the time for sentencing Low on the misdemeanor conviction.

Originally, Low was charged with perjury, a felony. But Deputy Dist. Atty. Bruce Bales amended the charge, giving Low the benefit of doubt on whether he had actually given the information to the assessor under a sworn oath.

Dist. Atty. William O. Weissich filed the charge against Low, when Low applied for veteran's exemption without telling about property he owns in San Francisco. Weissich said Low also applied for exemption in San Francisco without revealing his Marin property.

Judge Sims asked Deputy Bales to ask San Francisco for a report on how much tax Low had avoided in that county by failing to reveal his Marin property.

Youth Orchestra Practice To Start

Rehearsals for the Marin Youth Orchestra, sponsored by the Symphony Guild of Marin, will begin Monday, according to Mrs. Walter Baird, chairman of the youth orchestra.

Rehearsals, open to any qualified young musician who has had at least one year of training on his instrument, will be in the Music Building at San Rafael High School every Monday from 4:15 to 6:30 p.m. They will be conducted by Hugo Rinaldo, who has led the orchestra since its formation.

In addition to string players, the orchestra needs trumpet and trombone players and a harpist.

Several concerts are being planned. Audition dates for soloists will be announced later.

Nikita Warns Ike 2 Nations Too Strong To Quarrel

WASHINGTON (AP) — Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev told President Eisenhower last night that a quarrel between the United States and the Soviet Union could lead to colossal damage and a world shambles.

In an exchange of toasts at a White House state dinner, Eisenhower and Khrushchev agreed that both nations should bend every effort to encourage world peace.

The Soviet leader declared the United States and the U.S.S.R. are too strong to permit quarreling between them.

He added: "If we were weak countries, then it would be another matter, because when the weak quarrel, they are just scratching each other's faces and it takes just a couple of days for a cosmetician and everything comes out right again. But, if we quarrel, then not only our countries can suffer colossal damage, but the other countries of the world will also be involved in a world shambles."

This is the note the Soviet leader sounded long ago—that if the Soviet Union and the United States, as the two most powerful countries on earth, could settle their differences, the whole world's problems could be solved.

About 200,000 persons lined the streets to watch Khrushchev's entry into the nation's capital. The crowds generally were quiet, undemonstrative, sometimes even cold to the visitor although polite waves of clapping greeted him at times. There were a few boos, but no major disturbances.

In no way did the reception approach the million-person outpouring for example, which greeted the visit of Queen Elizabeth of Britain in 1957.

The lack of public enthusiasm, however, appeared to have little effect upon Khrushchev. The 65-year-old indefatigable Communist leader topped his busy day with a bouncy performance at the White House dinner, a plush function attended by about 100 American and Soviet guests.

The Soviet leader's remarks were in response to a series of toasts. The first was offered by President Eisenhower, who said: "Now, today, it seems to me that our two countries have a very special obligation to the entire world. Because of our strength, because of our importance in the world, it is vital that we understand each other better."

Khrushchev had gone through a day which might have floored a lesser man. Despite his 12-hour flight from the Soviet Union to the United States, he participated in elaborate welcoming ceremonies, had a lengthy official conference with Eisenhower, accompanied the President on an unscheduled helicopter tour over Washington and then showed up at the state function.

MAMIE AND HER GUEST — Mrs. Mamie Eisenhower poses with Mrs. Nina Khrushchev, wife of the Soviet premier, at the White House last night where the President and the First Lady were hosts to the visiting Russian leader and his family at a state dinner. Mrs. Eisenhower wears a gold brocade dress with a full skirt and modest neckline. Mrs. Khrushchev is in formal attire, wearing a dark teal blue taffeta-like gown with a V-neckline front and back. She wore just a slight amount of lipstick.

Ike Takes Visitor On 'Copter Tour Of City

WASHINGTON (UPI)—President Eisenhower accomplished one of his long-cherished aims by talking Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev into taking an unscheduled helicopter whirl around the capital.

The 22-minute flight in a Marine helicopter late yesterday afternoon was not part of Khrushchev's official itinerary. Eisenhower suggested it during the limousine ride to the city from Andrews Air Force Base and the Russian leader agreed.

The President told a news conference a month ago that he would like Khrushchev "to fly along in my chopper and just make a circuit of the district (of Columbia) and to see the uncountable homes that have been built all around, modest but decent, fine, comfortable homes . . ."

The flight, which came while the cars of thousands of homeward-bound government workers jammed Washington's streets and highways, also should have removed Khrushchev's doubts about the number of automobiles in America.

Khrushchev had indicated he was skeptical of Vice President Richard M. Nixon's statement in Russia that there are 60 million cars in the United States. It was one of the Soviet leader's misconceptions about this country that Eisenhower wanted to clear up.

In addition to the crush of cars on the streets, Khrushchev got a birds-eye view of homes that ranged from sprawling estates near country clubs—some with two cars and a swimming pool—to a rather rundown neighborhood in nearby Alexandria, Va.

The helicopter flew at 700 to 1,000 feet—just right to view the capital's tree-dotted landscape, and surrounding countryside.

MOSCOW PRESS SAYS WELCOME GREATEST EVER

MOSCOW (AP) — Moscow newspapers told readers today Washington's welcome to Premier Nikita Khrushchev was the greatest in the history of the American capital.

Stories appearing in Pravda and Izvestia said the Soviet leader was greeted by "friendly shouts" and "stormy applause" from a smiling crowd so big "there was not even a place to drop an apple" on the street.

"Not even the end of World War II brought such a sea of people onto the streets of Washington," said the Communist party organ Pravda.

"About 300,000 Americans met the Soviet guests, people stood on rooftops and balconies and many climbed monuments or trees."

QUIET PROTESTS

Mourning Symbols, Prayers Mark Khrushchev's Arrival

By ASSOCIATED PRESS

Up and down the land symbols of mourning are cropping up and prayerful services are being held as some Americans express their protest or concern over the visit of Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev.

But few of the demonstrations have personally touched the Soviet leader and they are generally quiet and solemn, not violent.

The American people appeared to be almost unanimously adhering to President Eisenhower's request for polite, courteous treatment of an important foreign visitor.

Many of the protests showed more imagination than anger.

A Hungarian refugee tried to put a black blindfold over the eyes of the Statue of Liberty, but the cloth dropped from the statue's crown was torn away by the wind.

A paper plant at Holyoke, Mass. and St. Joseph's Roman Catholic Cathedral in Buffalo, N. Y., both flew flags upside down. A cathedral spokesman explained the upside down flag was a distress signal.

A skywriting plane drew a huge cross over Washington skies as Khrushchev was driven into the capital—"just a symbol of our faith" sponsored by an anti-Communist religious group.

The Soviet premier may also have been able to hear the hymn "Faith of Our Fathers" tolled by church bells as the caravan went past the White House.

Sleepy Nikita Out Early Today

WASHINGTON (AP)—A sleepy-looking Premier Nikita Khrushchev stepped out in shirt sleeves for an early morning look today.

He made a four-minute appearance on the steps of Blair House, where he is staying during his Washington visit.

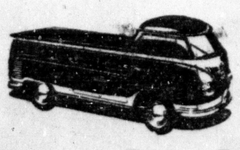

The Kremlin chief—who had been up late at White House dinner — emerged unannounced. The time was 7:45 a.m.

Khrushchev, looking a bit tired and sleepy, squinted at the early morning sun, and took a few deep breaths of the cool fall air.

Then he seemed to wake up a bit. His solemn manner gave way to smiles and waves as photographers snapped pictures.

Trade over the Santa Fe Trail reached its peak in 1831, when 130 wagons made the trip from Independence, Mo., to Santa Fe, N.M., carrying cargo valued at $250,000.

"BETTER MEALS BUILD BETTER FAMILIES...

MARIE KEIFER, Secretary-Manager, National Association of Retail Grocers

...will bring to the attention of millions of our citizens the need for improved diets and better nutrition"

FROM SEPTEMBER 14 TO 26, the great food industry of the United States and Canada will participate in a nationwide movement called "Better Meals Build Better Families." This movement, in cooperation with your daily newspaper, is designed to emphasize the importance of good food and regular family meals in our daily life.

The National Association of Retail Grocers (NARGUS), a leading food trade organization, is one of many that have endorsed this program. The Secretary-Manager of NARGUS, Mrs. Marie Kiefer, speaks for 70,000 retail grocers when she says: "The National Association of Retail Grocers is tremendously interested in awakening Americans to the importance of food for family health and national strength.

The 'Better Meals Build Better Families' promotion of the daily newspapers of the U.S. and Canada next September 14 to 26 will bring to the attention of millions of our citizens the need for improved diets and better nutrition."

Your local food stores will be joining in the "Better Meals Build Better Families" drive during September 14 to 26. Watch this newspaper every day for complete details of this important event and special announcements that will be made by these food merchants.

Factory Wall Falls

HAMMONTON, N. J. (AP)—A factory wall cracked, then collapsed on 75 terrified clothing workers yesterday, showering them with plaster and water from a sprinkler system.

About 40 employees of the Modern Clothing Co. were injured, but only one was hospitalized. Police said an excavation next to the plant apparently undermined the cinderblock rear wall.

Morris Rites Set

GLENDALE (AP) — Masonic funeral services for actor Wayne Morris, 45, will be conducted tomorrow in the Church of the Hills. Morris, a World War II flying ace, died of a heart attack Monday aboard the aircraft carrier Bonhomme Richard off Monterey.

L.A. Seeks Contest

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Los Angeles is bidding for the Miss Universe beauty contest.

The city council yesterday adopted a resolution urging that the pageant be moved here. The swim suit company which owns the pageant is pulling it out of Long Beach because of a disagreement with the local producers.

Typhoon Rakes Isles

TOKYO (AP)—Typhoon Sarah roared into the East China Sea today after raking the southern Ryukyus with 145 m.p.h. winds. Unless it veers it will hit the Korean peninsula tomorrow.

There was no word from the American base at Okinawa but it was within range of 50 m.p.h. fringe winds. The Shanghai area of Red China was within range too.

Cancer Quacks Guilty

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Two men and a woman were to be sentenced today on misdemeanor counts of violating the state Health and Safety Code in selling a "cancer cure" machine.

Emerson B. Hartman, San Bernardino chiropractor, Webster Billington of Santa Ana and Mrs. Golda Franzen of San Francisco were convicted yesterday by a municipal court jury.

The trio had been charged with misbranding a device and advertising it was effective against various ailments, including cancer.

First Cold Snap Hits

By U.P. INTERNATIONAL

A Canadian cold snap bit into the northern half of the nation today, putting the first hint of fall into the air and bringing winter clothes out of moth balls.

The Weather Bureau predicted the cool air would spread through Virginia into the northern Gulf Coast states and into Oklahoma and the southern Rockies by nightfall. Early today, the entire north from the North Atlantic states through the Northern Rockies and most of the Far West from Canada to Mexico was feeling the chill.

Labor Convention

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—The 1959 AFL-CIO National Convention will open tomorrow with assurances from the administration that labor will get a fair shake under the new labor law.

Secretary of Labor James Mitchell told the AFL-CIO Metal Trades Department Convention yesterday "honest, legal unions have nothing to fear from the way we'll administer the law in the Labor Department."

Birds From Egypt?

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—Strange travel-worn birds spotted yesterday in Everglades National Park are believed to be Egyptian geese. They have bird watchers atwitter. Did the geese come all the way from Egypt? Even the experts don't know for sure. Bird experts call them alopochen aegyptiacus, a high-flown term for the kissing kin of the ordinary mallard duck.

Laos Probe Starts

VIENTIANE, Laos (AP)—United Nations fact-finders began their investigations today amid reports the royal government has captured prisoners to support their charges of Communist aggression in Laos.

A U.N. source reported that Laotian officials said they had caught five Red soldiers to supplement circumstantial evidence against Communist North Viet Nam.

Callas In Athens

ATHENS, Greece (AP)—Maria Meneghini Callas and Aristotle Onassis made a surprise appearance in a Greek night club early today.

The 35-year-old diva whose marriage to Italian industrialist Giovan Battista Meneghini, 62, went on the rocks last week, arrived Monday with 55-year-old Onassis off Glyphada, a fashionable resort near Athens, aboard the Greek millionaire's yacht.

Building Collapses

BARLETTA, Italy (UPI)—A new five-story apartment house, containing 24 families totaling 106 persons, collapsed without warning today. Many residents were trapped and killed, and police estimated the death toll would be high.

Police said they had recovered 16 bodies so far and taken 13 injured from the twisted mass of steel and stone. An estimated 80 still were missing.

Operation Permitted

KANSAS CITY, Kan. (AP) — Charlene Butts, 19, underwent successful surgery yesterday for removal of a tumor which had impaired her eyesight and endangered her life.

For weeks the girl's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Butts of Oswego, Kan., had refused to consent to the operation. Physicians at the University of Kansas Medical Center finally convinced them that Charlene's life was at stake and they gave written consent.

Rabies Treatment Questions Answered By Health Officer

A rabid bat and a rabid rat Sat down to talk to a charming cat.

"Oh dear," said the cat, "if I'm seen with you,

"This will mean that I've rabies, too . . ."

So wrote Virginia Borland of San Rafael last month in a letter to the Independent-Journal, in asking several questions about the treatment of rabies.

Dr. Carolyn B. Albrecht, Marin County health officer, has attempted to answer some of the questions. In a letter to Miss Borland, Dr. Albrecht said in part:

"A man who had his dog inoculated against rabies cannot be sure that this dog will not contract or transmit the disease because no immunizing agent known to man, for use in either men or animals, give 100 per cent protection in 100 per cent of inoculated individuals . . . As a dog that bites may be the only one in a thousand that failed to develop immunity to rabies following vaccination, one must treat the bitten person without regard for the dog's vaccination status.

"The need for Pasteur treatment following any animal bite must be evaluated on an individual basis, taking into consideration the location and severity of the wound, whether it resulted from a provoked or apparently unprovoked bite, what kind of local treatment was given . . . and how soon after the bite it was given. . . .

"The Humane Society destroyed the two cats (found by a housewife after they had been bitten by a bat that later proved to have been rabid) (because the Humane Society) has facilities for the humane destruction of animals and make this service available to anyone on request."

As to widespread campaigns against rabies, "rabies vaccination of dogs is very effective in preventing the disease" with a drop in cases in California as vaccination was increased.

"An epidemic is considered to be 'any unusual incidence' of a disease, with due consideration for the seasonal and cyclical variations in incidence of that disease . . . to be more specific one might consider an epidemic of a disease . . . when the number of cases . . . is 50 per cent greater than the average . . . for the same period over the past five years."

Wisconsin Farmer Bit By Bat Dies Of Rabies

BLUE RIVER, Wis. (AP) — On a cool August night a bat flew through an open window and bit sleeping Louis Ashmore on the ear. Ashmore killed it. The next day he joked about it.

Less than a month later he was dead of hydrophobia.

The death of the 44-year-old farmer was the first attributed by the Wisconsin Health Department to the disease, usually transmitted by the mite of a rabies-infected animal or rodent. It creates madness in animals.

A U.S. Public Health Service team has been ordered here to begin a search for infected bats. The service operates a rabies control center at Poynette, not far from this southwest Wisconsin village of 425 persons.

The service said there were only six hydrophobia deaths in the United States last year. The disease usually is fatal, once symptoms develop. Skunks are the most frequent carriers of rabies, but there have been reports of infected bats.

Ashmore was bitten Aug. 8. It was his only known contact with a possible rabies carrier.

The next day he laughed with his wife about the incident. On Aug. 29, Ashmore complained of a sore ear and stiff neck. He didn't connect it with the bat bite and kept at his chores.

Four days later he entered a hospital, partially paralyzed. The next morning he was taken to the state's medical center, University Hospital at Madison.

On Sept. 5, Mrs. Ashmore remembered the bat bite.

Her husband died the next morning.

Pays Twice

BIRMINGHAM, Ala. (AP)—W. E. Roush paid a $10 parking ticket twice and now the problem is in the hands of the City Commission. Roush paid the fine once, lost the receipt, and paid it again.

By the time he found the first receipt the second payment was so far along in the city's bookkeeping system that it requires legal processes to get it back.

County Denies Duplexes On Tideland Lots

The Marin County Board of Supervisors by 4-1 vote yesterday denied Fred Jukich permission to build two duplexes on piles on Tiburon tideland lots.

Jukich needed a variance because the two lots were not sufficiently wide for a building permit to be automatically issued. He proposed building the two duplexes below a house at 2326 Mar East, Tiburon, which he has purchased. His case was argued before the supervisors by William Harrison Morrison, designer of the proposed duplexes.

The dissenting vote was cast by Supervisor William D. Fusselman, who said if one duplex or one single-family dwelling could be legally constructed on the tidelots, then the only problem to consider was extra traffic generated on Mar East.

A contingent of Tiburon residents headed by Lee C. Megan of 2032 Paradise drive objected to the duplexes as obstructing neighbors' views and changing the basic character of the Tiburon waterfront.

County Supervisor Vera Schultz moved to deny the variance because if it were granted "others will seek to build buildings out into the water where none are now." She noted that the county planning commission voted unanimously to deny the variance.

SUPERVISORS ROUNDUP

Action On Exclusion From District Delayed

The Marin County Board of Supervisors delayed action yesterday on a petition to remove 35 acres of undeveloped land from the Terra Linda Community Services District.

The petition was filed by Terra Linda developer Calvin C. B. Wheeler, who said the land in question is now a part of the City of San Rafael. The supervisors delayed consideration until 2 p.m. next Tuesday because directors of the services district had not filed a requested report setting forth its boundaries and bonded indebtedness.

Wheeler said his 35 acres are now in the unusual position of being served by both the Terra Linda and San Rafael fire departments. He was represented before the board of supervisors by attorney Roderick P. Martinelli of San Rafael.

In other business yesterday, the board of supervisors:

1. Accepted two bids of Carey Brothers Construction Co. of San Anselmo, a $56,648 bid to install water mains in Marinero subdivision on Tiburon, and a $7,050 bid to install underground electrical conduits in the same subdivision. Piombo and Bresnan of San Rafael had submitted a $60,815 bid for the water mains only.

2. Postponed until Sept. 29 a decision on three bids opened last week for construction of a bridge over a drainage canal in the Lucky Drive Assessment District. The bids were to be further studied to ascertain if they were too high.

3. Authorized Dr. Carolyn B. Albrecht, county health officer, to call in a consulting psychiatrist at $20 an hour when she is undecided whether a person referred to her should be committed to Napa State Hospital for 72 hours. The vote was 3-2, with Chairman Walter R. Castro and Supervisor William Gnoss dissenting. They advocated consulting psychiatrists who may agree to advise Superior Court judges on Napa commitments at $10 an hour. The $20 fee was recommended by a Marin Medical Society committee. Dr. Albrecht said she send about three persons a year to Napa State Hospital on 72-hour commitments.

TO VISIT HISTORICAL
MOUNT TAMALPAIS CEMETERY

A Peaceful Place of Rest
Serving all Faiths

Here, within view of Marin's famous mountain, is a lovely setting guarded by gracious trees. Quiet and beauty speak of peace and rest, just as they did 80 years ago when Marin pioneers chose it as a final resting place for their families.

Here, all faiths will find that which meets their own needs and preferences. Here are well-kept grounds and gardens, the beautiful Angelus Garden mausoleum for above-ground burial, as well as Marin County's modern new crematorium, and the lovely Chapel of Light columbarium.

At Mount Tamalpais, careful provisions assure lasting care. An Endowment Care fund of a quarter-million dollars—growing year by year—will keep this site serene and beautiful. And with less than a tenth of its large acreage yet used, Tamalpais will be able to serve Marin communities for generations to come.

A five-minute drive from downtown San Rafael brings you to this secluded spot of ages old beauty. We welcome your visit any day... so you can consider arrangements in advance of need, as so many Marin families are doing today.

Fairfax Tract Residents Protest Apartment Zoning

Residents of Westbrae subdivision in Fairfax protested last night to the Fairfax Planning Commission that apartment zoning for a 30,000-square-foot parcel of property across from the Fairfax Community Church would depreciate the value of their holdings.

About 40 persons crowded the Fairfax City Council chambers at last night's meeting.

The Westbrae residents also argued that their privacy might be invaded if a planned two-story apartment house is built on the opposite side of Manor Creek from their homes.

An eight-unit apartment house is planned for the property, said Robert Roumiguiere, San Anselmo real estate broker and developer. The property was annexed to Fairfax with a single family residential zoning. It faces on Sir Francis Drake boulevard.

Roumiguiere asked that action be postponed until he has a chance to "get together with people who live in Westbrae and see if they can work out postponed to the commission's Sept. 24 meeting.

The commissioners had expected to work on the city's new zoning ordinance last night but adjourned at 10 p.m. without getting to it. Chairman W. E. Radtke said the zoning ordinance probably will be presented to the city council by Christmas time.

Novato Club To Give Show

Tryouts for the Novato Community Club's "Fall Fling" musical variety show, to be presented early in November, will be held at 8 p.m. tomorrow at the clubhouse at 906 Machin avenue.

Mrs. George Barnwell, producer and director, said the production is in need of a wide variety of amateur talent. Also needed are stage hands and technical helpers.

The production is to benefit the community club. Participants need not be members of the club.

Anyone with a yen to put on grease paint and cavort before the footlights can be used, said Mrs. Barnwell. Already signed up for the extravaganza is a group of Novato firemen with a surprise number in store. The club drama section is assisting with the show.

Newly-named chairmen for the production and their committees are:

George Wahl, stage; Robert Metzger, lights; William Luft and Russell Dreosch, sets; Barbara Lenington, tickets; Mrs. George Wahl, program; Carelle Wheeler, decorations; Mrs. Edward Grundstrom, house and refreshments, and Mrs. Sheldon Nichols, publicity.

Boy Often Slept Outside In Yard

A 13-year-old Santa Venetia boy, who camped out in the Little League dugout Sunday night, was not missed because he has often slept in the backyard, his parents said last night.

Mr. and Mrs. William J. Martinez of 27 Roosevelt avenue declared that, except for a quick business trip to the Russian River area Monday, they have always been home and the door to the home was always open to the boy, even during their brief trip.

Mrs. Martinez said the boy has stayed away from home in the past. They did not report him missing Sunday night because they thought he was sleeping in the yard, she said.

Charge Against Disc Jockey's Mom Will Be Dropped

Disc jockey Don Sherwood's mother will not have to face a drunken driving charge in Marin Municipal Court.

Deputy Dist. Atty. Bruce B. Bales disclosed today that a blood alcohol test showed only .098 for Mrs. Inga Fern Cohelan, 66, of 186 Hillside drive, Fairfax. Usually, the courts consider .150 the borderline for intoxication.

Bales said he disculssed the case with Dist. Atty. William O. Weissich, and they decided prosecution for drunken driving is not warranted in light of the blood alcohol test.

Mrs. Cohelan was arrested by Fairfax police on Labor Day. She submitted to a blood alcohol test, pleaded innocent, and asked for a jury trial.

Crash At Fortuna Injures Marinite

An automobile crash south of Fortuna Monday put Mrs. Olive Bessing, 46, of 51 Lakeside drive, Corte Madera, in St. Joseph's Hospital, Eureka, with what were termed critical injuries. Her husband, William, 49, suffered minor injuries.

The California Highway Patrol reported the Bessing car skidded on slick pavement of Highway 101 and collided with a light truck driven by Richard Wys of Eureka, who was not hurt.

Mrs. Bessing suffered a fracture of the skull and several broken bones.

History Unit Meeting Set Tonight

At the annual meeting of the Marin County Historical Society at 8 o'clock tonight at the San Rafael Improvement Club, the colorful story of John Reed and his vast rancho, Corte Madera del Presidio, will be told.

The speakers panel consists of two members of prominent pioneer families of the area, Russell D. Keil's Cove and James L. Heynemann of Belvedere, along with Roy Graves, an authority on early transportation.

Three pictures of historical interest will be shown. The pictures are of members of the Reed family and have been presented to the historical society for exhibit in its museum by Mrs. Roy Mills of Mill Valley. She is a great-granddaughter of the grantee of Rancho Corte Madera. Mrs. Mills has also written a brief sketch of the Reed family which will be read at the meeting by Florence Donnelly.

Presiding at the meeting will be Thomas W. Peryam, society president. A brief business session will precede the program.

All golden wedding couples attending will be honored guests. The meeting and program are open to the all interested in Marin's history. Refreshments will be served by a committee headed by Mrs. V. J. Bloom.

Pt. Reyes Man Hurt In Wreck

Robert P. Pitchford of Point Reyes Station, suffered facial cuts in a three-car accident yesterday in San Anselmo.

Police Chief Raymond R. Buchignani said Pitchford was injured when his car was struck from the rear on Center boulevard by a car driven by Mrs. Mary Louise Plunkett of 45 Hickory road, Fairfax.

The impact knocked Pitchford's car into the rear of one driven by Richard Lee Clapp, also of Point Reyes Station, who had stopped for a boulevard stop on Center at Saunders avenue. Pitchford was treated at Marin General Hospital.

Mrs. Plunkett, who said her foot slipped off the brake pedal, was cited for following too closely.

Second School Merger Hearing Slated Tonight

The second of three public hearings on the proposal to merge the Novato Unified and San Jose Elementary School Districts will be held at 8 o'clock tonight at Lynwood School in South Novato.

Mrs. Helen Wallace, chairman of the Marin County Committee on School District Organization, will preside.

At least one member of the San Jose District Board of Trustees will attend tonight's hearing, according to Supt. Phillip W. Schneider. Supt. William J. J. Smith of the Novato district reported it is uncertain whether there will be any Novato trustees present.

A final hearing will be held at 8 p.m. tomorrow at Loma Verde School. The first hearing, held Monday night at Novato's Marion School, was attended by only two persons beside the school officials from Novato.

An election on the merger will be held Sept. 29.

Food consumption studies show that families spend more money for meat and meat substitutes than any other major group of foods.

ANYONE WANT TO BUY OLD FIREHOUSE?

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Anybody want to buy an old firehouse?

San Francisco put three old retired engine houses up for sale yesterday and only two persons bid.

Mark Adams, an artist, got one for $7,500. He and his artist wife will live in the place and use it for a studio.

Steve Tobin, a carpenter, paid $12,500 for another old fire house which he will turn into a carpenter shop.

There was no bid for the third one.

Soil District Set To Hire Engineer

A full-time soil conservation engineer will be appointed to serve the Marin Soil Conservation District in about a month, Waldo Giacomini, district board president, reported yesterday.

The board, which met Monday in Point Reyes Station, also discussed plans for a new office about No. 1. The location will be selected on the basis of bids, Giacomini said.

David Dresback of the state soil conservation office and Barney Taylor, a soil conservationist from Sonoma, were present at the meeting.

Fairfax School Tax Hike Supporters Meet Tonight

Workers in the campaign for approval of a tax increase in the Fairfax School District will meet at 8 o'clock tonight in Manor School. Question-and-answer manuals will be distributed.

A second meeting is scheduled at the same school Oct. 7 at 8 p.m. Announcement of the sessions was made to the Fairfax School District board last night.

The proposed tax increase is from $1.25 to $2 for the five-year period beginning 1960.

Bruce McDonald, summer school principal, made the same report on the 1959 session as he gave Monday night to the San Anselmo board. A total of 114 Fairfax children attended the school.

The board discussed the impending independent operation of the district, beginning 1960-61, and decided to have a member present at work sessions of a San Anselmo committee studying procedure and job specification for the position of superintendent.

Mrs. Gladys Zumwalt, assistant superintendent in charge of instruction, reported on the revised reading program which provides more difficult reading material at each grade level. An evaluation of the reading program showed that children are able in many cases to proceed well beyond their grade level, she said.

Supt. Harold R. DePue, reported the following enrollments: Deer Park, 253; Fairfax Central, 256, and Manor, 361, for a total of 870, compared to 859 a year ago.

The report of the salary administration study committee and a review of the administrative manual for administrative rules and regulations were deferred to the Oct. 20 meeting because two members were absent last night.

Group In Mourning Over Nikita's Visit

Mrs. Belle Jones of 250 La Verne avenue, Mill Valley, co-chairman of the Bay Area chapter of the Committee for Freedoms for All People, said today the committee has called for "another mourning" during the visit to the U.S. of Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev.

She said a transcpript of a recent Russian broadcast heralds the visit as a victory for the Soviet Union. She said the broadcast was monitored by Radio Free Europe in Germany. Mrs. Jones has copies of the transcript available for distribution, according to a statement from committee headquarters in San Francisco.

Mill Valley Use Of Planning Expert Advised

The suggestion that Mill Valley contract with Marin County for fulltime services of a planning technician was given the Mill Valley City Planning Commission last night by Mary Summers, county planning director.

Her suggestion came during a discussion of the city's plans for the marshland, Camino Alto, East Blithedale avenue and adjacent sections, for which $8,000 has been earmarked for planning.

She said that the city's only alternative would be to seek outside professional planning service.

A three-hour "workshop" session of the planning board, attracted a good sized audience. Among those present were Mayor Robert D. Huber and city councilmen Joseph E. Sheeks and George W. Blackwell.

Mayor Huber declared the city's development had progressed beyond the general plan stage and "it is now time for precising some of the details."

General discussion of the over-all Richardson Bay yacht harbor proposals, including one for a Mill Valley small craft harbor, was led by Mrs. Summers.

CONGRESS LETS HER IN

Ten-month-old Eva Marie Lasher merrily plays with her toys at Taipei, Formosa, unaware that she was the object of special Congressional legislation. The adopted daughter of Air Force S/Sgt. James J. Lasher and his German-born wife, Eva Marie was ineligible to enter the United States with the Lashers when they were scheduled to leave Formosa in June, because she is not an orphan. Congress came to the rescue and granted the little girl a visa. (AP Wirephoto)

Little Teen Violence Noted In Pittsburgh

PITTSBURGH (UPI) — The tremors of teen-age violence reverberating in New York and other large cities are surprisingly quiet in Pittsburgh's urban-industrial complex.

Faced with the same pressure-building factors common to large urban centers—overcrowded areas, mixture of racial and ethnic groups, relative poverty — Pittsburgh authorities have been able to clamp a tight lid on the cauldron of juvenile crime which often has boiled over elsewhere.

Much of the credit for this city's success in this field is given the late Judge Gustav L. Schramm, who for 27 years was Pennsylvania's first and only juvenile court judge.

Schramm died at the age of 61 on Sept. 5 The day before he died, he told a reporter during an interview in his juvenile court chambers:

"The philosophy here is simple. We treat every child as if the court were a parent. We handle each case personaliy and individually.

"This is a place of equity, not a criminal court for children."

Schramm often felt the sting of criticism for his methods. But he let progress serve as his yardstick.

From the time he took over the juvenile bench in 1933, Schramm talked personally with every youngster brought before the court. His goal was always to gain the youngster's trust.

"To me," he said, "these private talks are the heart of my work. A boy's future is at stake and these delicate moments can enhance or harm the relationship which is established and carried on between the child and the community.

"Many people think of a court only as something cold and impersonal and punitive. But a juvenile court must be flexible to meet the needs of youngsters in their formative years. We cannot be confined by strict procedures.

"These youngsters don't want a lollipop and a pat on the head. They want to be treated like human beings."

Schramm's formula rarely had to be used on the same youngster twice. Of the nearly 4,700 cases brought before his court last year, four out of five did not return.

Police Inspector James McKnight, a member of the Pittsburgh force for 30 years and in charge of juveniles half that time, said the results of Schramm's work are felt daily.

"We haven't had a juvenile gang form in Pittsburgh in more than five years," McKnight said. "Sure, we've had problems with boys, but no youth gangs in the New York or Philadelphia sense."

McKnight said that only three juvenile gangs had shown up on Pittsburgh streets in the past 15 years, and there hasn't been a serious upsurge of racial conflict in the past 5 year.

Pittsburgh police have never had to assign extra details to any area of the city because of juvenile violence, nor have they ever had to enforce a curfew law, he said.

This year, he added, the city's juvenile delinquency rate has shown a decline as compared with the average for the past 10 years.

Redwood Empire Directors Hold Meet Tonight

Marin County directors of the Redwood Empire Assn. will hold their first meeting tonight with business and civic leaders. It will start at 8 p.m. at Olney Hall at the College of Marin.

Frank P. Myer, Marin vice president of the association will preside.

Directors will discuss organizational matters and means of obtaining broader support of the association's national publicity and advertising campaign to attract tourist dollars to the empire.

Official guests will include Don Emerson of Lake County, REA president, and various unit presidents and committee chairmen. Among the business to be conducted will be election of Marin's vice president and executive board members for this fiscal year.

Also there will be reports on publicity and advertising, highways and legislation, wayside enterprises, the newspaper publishers unit and real estate.

The meeting is preliminary to the Redwood Empire Association's annual convention at Hoberg's in Lake County Oct. 22-24.

MOVE FOR FREEDOM DENIED

Carole Tregoff wiped away a tear yesterday after hearing in superior court in Pomona that she must stand trial for murder. She and Dr. R. Bernard Finch are accused of slaying Finch's wife July 18. Attorneys for Miss Tregoff, 22, argued that the only evidence linking her with the murder was her own testimony, and therefore she should go free. The argument was overruled, and she was ordered to stand trial with Finch on Nov. 24. (AP Wirephoto)

Brown Lists 3 Possible Vice President Hopefuls

SACRAMENTO (AP—Gov. Edmund G. Brown today mentioned Sen. Clair Engle (D-Calif.) and two other western Democrats as possible candidates for vice president in 1960.

His statement, in an interview, may not puncture the Brown-for-president balloon. But it may put a slow leak in it.

The Democratic governor has not said definitely he will seek the top nomination. Nor has he discouraged growing belief he'd like a crack at it.

Another westerner on the ticket would be certain to cancel out Brown.

Even so, he listed Gov. Stephen McNichols of Colorado and Sen. Henry M. Jackson of Washington along with Engle as possible choices for vice president.

Engle, in his first eight months as California's junior senator, has compiled a great record, Brown said, and would make a strong candidate.

"I'm sure he could be interested" in running, the governor added.

He noted that the Republicans tapped Richard M. Nixon for vice president in his fresh-man term as a California senator.

Brown praised McNichols as "a great governor—one of the best Colorado has ever had." He noted that Jackson, who first went to the Senate in 1944, won re-election to his present term by an overwhelming vote.

California's chief executive offered up the three names in discussing his proposal for a western Democratic bloc.

Real Estate Views and Values

"I'm Mrs. Stoll," a silver haired lady said. "My husband passed away a few months ago. He and I talked a great deal about buying a home of our own. His business required him to move around the country every few years, so we never got around to owning a home. But now, I'm sure he'd want me to take some of the life insurance money and buy a small home."

We advised her to buy a new small home, since it would be easy to keep, and also, a better investment. She agreed, since she had some cash and a steady job to provide her with enough to live on.

Ray Kopf

"I'm simply thrilled with all the lovely features of this home," Mrs. Stoll confided as she inspected a nice, new one. "Look at the built-in range and oven, the carpeted floors, the birch kitchen cabinets, the pretty stone fireplace, and the beautiful bathroom. It is simply beautiful, Mr. Broker what is your advice? Should I wait? I'm afraid it will be gone."

Perhaps you, too, would enjoy the thrilling features of a new 2 or 3 bedroom home. If so, we would be pleased to show you the "pick" of our late-model and new homes.

Marinite Who Aided Robber Pleads Guilty

Terrance C. Corkery of Sausalito pleaded guilty in U.S. District Court in San Francisco yesterday to the charge that he concealed from police knowledge of the Aug. 17 robbery of the Point Reyes Station Bank of America branch.

The 50-year-old carpenter confessed receiving $1,692 from admitted holdup man William (Dougie) Williams. Corkery said he went to the robber's rescue when Williams' car broke down as he fled.

Williams got $14,430 in the robbery. He was sentenced to 15 years in maximum security, and presently is in Alcatraz Federal Prison.

Corkery will be sentenced Oct. 6 by Judge George G. Harris. He could get three years and a fine of $500.

San Rafael Store Sets Open House

Grand opening for the remodeled Herbert's Shoes, 937 Fourth street, San Rafael, will be held Friday, preceded by an "open house" tomorrow, proprietor Herbert Levine said today.

The new store will feature "name" shoes for women and men.

On Sept. 25, a week from Friday, a pair of Citation women's shoes will be given away every hour from 9 a.m. to 9 p.m., Levine said. Persons may register for the shoe drawing at the store starting tomorrow at the open house.

Levine is associated in the business with his brother-in-law, Simon Kaufman.

BATS COME TO LIFE

Giants 'Ready' For Biggest Five Days

Facing the biggest five days in California's baseball history, San Francisco Manager Bill Rigney declares, "Our pitchers are ready and our hitters hitting.

"Now we're getting to the meat of the thing."

The Giants, holding a National League lead of two games over Milwaukee and Los Angeles, opened a two-game series with the Braves today and then collide with the Dodgers in three. That winds up the final home stand in major league baseball's second year on the West Coast.

Sellout crowds are expected for all five games at tiny Seal Stadium with its 22,900 capacity while crews continue working at Candlestick Park to get it in shape for the World Series, should the Giants win.

A 13-hit attack including eight runs in the first two innings yesterday snapped San Francisco out of a batting slump and brought a 13-6 victory over Cincinnati.

The triumph also boosted the Giants lead as Los Angeles nipped Milwaukee 8-7 in an extra inning to go into the second place tie.

The San Francisco-Milwaukee opener brought a pair of 20-victory pitchers head to head, Sam Jones of the Giants and Lew Burdette of the Braves.

Sad Sam, the veteran in his first 20-game season, has beaten Milwaukee five times this year while losing twice. Burdette is three and two against San Francisco.

After they had slumped at the plate in recent days, the Giants met with Rigney for an "inspirational" talk before the last game. It must have helped.

The San Franciscans came alive at bat as they chased Cincinnati starter Jay Hook before a man was out in the first.

Willie Mays and Willie McCovey smashed 400-foot doubles in that opening inning with Mays adding another double and McCovey his 12th homer before the day was over. The latter smash dropped over the fence in right-center at the 409-foot mark. Daryl Spencer contributed a three-run homer in the second frame.

The victory went to 20-year-old Mike McCormick who had lost his previous two outings 1-0. He had an 8-1 lead after two frames this time.

ALOU HITS

Felipe Alou, sent into right field to replace Willie Kirkland in the search for more hitting, banged a single and a double and scored twice.

Jimmy Davenport, who started at third base for the first time since he was injured Aug. 17, said his injured knee hurt momentarily when he raced after a ball in the first inning. "The pain went right away and the knee was all right. I'll be able to start against Milwaukee," he said.

McCormick, in going the route, won his 12th victory against 14 setbacks and left the Giants with their regular pitching rotation set to face the Braves and Dodgers.

After Jones started against Milwaukee today, Jack Sanford goes tomorrow. Then Johnny Antonelli, winner of 19, will open against Los Angeles.

After Burdette, Milwaukee was expected to send cagey left-hander Warren Spahn against the Giants.

CHISOX RELIEF ACES—Key figures in the Chicago White Sox's drive toward the American League pennant are these relief pitching stars—Turk Lown, left, and Gerry Staley. Chisox Can Cinch It Friday; Meanwhile, Back In The N.L...

Get the champagne ready, Looie!

The White Sox may be asking you to pop the cork this weekend.

And by that time, the Giants should let you know definitely one way or the other.

For the White Sox, it's virtually all over but the gala formality of celebrating their first pennant clinching in 40 years. Their "magic number" now is down to four and for those whose mathematics may be a bit rusty, it simply means the Sox can wrap up the whole business by Friday night.

That was made possible when Cleveland fell 5½ games behind last night by losing to Boston, 1-0, after the White Sox had won a 4-3 thriller from the Yankees.

The Giants are in good shape, too, although not quite in the commanding position the White Sox are. San Francisco is two games in front of both Milwaukee and Los Angeles, and the Giants met the Braves in a two-game series at home starting today, then play host to the Dodgers in a three-game set.

Everything worked out perfectly for the Giants yesterday. They crushed the Reds, 13-6, while the Dodgers beat the Braves, 8-7 in 10 innings.

Reliever Don McMahon walked in the winning run in the 10th inning to enable the Dodgers to climb back into a second-place tie with the Braves. With Los Angeles trailing, 7-6, in the 10th, Maury Wills launched the winning rally with his fifth hit of the game. He eventually scored the tying run on a single and a sacrifice fly and after the Dodgers loaded the bases, Ron Fairly walked to force in the winning run.

The Braves trailed 6-3 at one point but tied the score in the top of the ninth and went ahead in the 10th when Johnny Logan's sacrifice fly scored Joe Adcock, who had homered earlier. Reliever Chuck Churn was the winner.

The White Sox' victory over the Yankees marked the 34th game this season they won by one run. The White Sox scored three of their runs—including the winning one—with sacrifice flies to offset Mickey Mantle's 30th and 31st home runs. Then they killed a final Yankee threat and ended the game with a spectacular double play started by rightfielder Jim Rivera.

Left-hander Billy Pierce evened his record at 14-14 with help from Bob Shaw. Ralph Terry carried a 2-1 Yankee lead until the eighth when he was relieved by Whitey Ford, who turned out to be the loser.

The BULLPEN

With JOHN J. CONNOLLY

Connolly 'Greets' Old Time Buddies, Wishes Them Nothing But Bad Luck

CONNOLLY

A couple of old time "buzzards" who have been feasting at the baseball trough for many years are here today. I'd like to be able to say they are "unwelcome guests" at this time, but, so help me, I can't in justice to friendships that have stood the test of time. So I'll just say I'm happy they are here and hope they lose two ball games.

I refer especially to Manager Fred Haney of the Milwaukee Braves and Duffy Lewis, traveling secretary.

Any other time of the year, Fred and Duffy, would be my palsy walsies, but so help me, I feel both have murder in their hearts sofar as the Giants are concerned. This pennant fight becomes more and more of a knock 'em down and drag 'em out affair as time wears on. And the Braves can really annoy our Giants.

Duffy, now in his middle 70s, goes back to the old brick pile days at St. Mary's College where he and Harry Hooper played as collegians before joining the Boston Red Sox, where, for years, they cavorted with Tris Speaker to make up one of the finest fly chasing outfields in organized baseball.

HANEY WAS one of my favorites for more than 20 years when we both were hooping it up in Los Angeles, Fred with the Los Angeles Angels and yours truly with the late William Randolph Hearst's Examiner.

I thought Haney's days were numbered in the early 30s when he had a kidney removed and remained out of baseball for a year. But he bounced back—and how!

So today you could say all three of us, are in the evening of a lively lifetime, and I'm the only dissenting one of the three. I'd like to say I'll be pulling for them, but I can't. I'm just a daffy old Giant fan.

The Giants really do something to you. For one thing they make you biased because they have so many rosy-cheeked kids in their early 20s in the derndest pennant fight of years.

BILL RIGNEY, boss of the Giants, hasn't had as soft a spot as Fred Haney of the Braves.

When Haney lost Red Schoendienst, his second sacker, his bosses went out and chunked a fair size hunk of dough to buy Bobby Avilla, who has helped no small bit in the home stretch drive of the Braves.

When Wes Covington, another bulwark with the Braves, was disabled, Haney's boss laid another chunk of dough on the line and picked up Enos Slaughter of the Yankees.

Both of these players were more than welcome. They both cost money. And neither is really figured in the future plans of the Braves.

Now, in the case of Rigney, the Giants relied on their "farm clubs" to help out. That's why we got "Stretch" McCovey for first base and Jose Pagan for third base, a wise but inexpensive investment.

So you see the "thinking" of the owners of two pennant contending ball clubs.

One, the Braves, goes gambling for speedy help at any cost; the other, the Giants, develops its own help at no extra cost. And the party of the second part is wise Horace Stoneham, a baseball man first, and a business man next.

49ers Trade Bobby Luna To Steelers

Punting specialist Bobby Luna, quarterback Bobby Newman and three first year linemen yesterday were released by the San Francisco 49ers as they reduced their squad to 37 players.

Luna was traded to Pittsburgh for a draft choice.

The rookie linemen were Hogan Wharton from Houston, Tommy Osborne from Hastings College and Frank Geremia of Notre Dame.

PAUL SPENGLER Jr. of the Meadow Club in Fairfax was eliminated from the United States Amateur Golf Tournament in Colorado Springs, Colo., yesterday.

The young links star was downed by E. I. Meister Jr. of Willoughby, Ohio, by a 2 up margin.

Harvie Ward Jr. of San Francisco remained in the running as he edged Joe Switzer of St. Louis, 3 and 2.

AMONG VETERAN stars released in the National Football League's player-cut yesterday were quarterback Babe Parilli of the Green Bay Packers and end Max Boydston of the Chicago Cardinals.

Sixto's Strategy Dull, But Wise In Richmond Fight

Bay Area fight fans may be a little bored with State Light-heavyweight champion Sixto Rodriguez after his most recent outing, but they have to give the San Anselmo fighter's board of strategy an "A" on the report card.

Last night Sixto took another big step up in his promising fistic career by gaining a 10-round decision over veteran Eddie Cotton of Seattle in Richmond Auditorium.

The lightheavies bored the fans throughout as their styles prohibited an exciting fight. Rodriguez, well aware of Cotton's vaunted right hand power, managed to stay away from it as boos rang in his ears.

Rodriguez, who weighed in at 174 to Cotton's 165, fought from a crouch throughout most of the bout and stayed close to Cotton to prevent the Washingtonian from unleashing any serious offense. Clinches, thus, were numerous, as Rodriguez just plain smothered Cotton.

This was the pattern round after round and though it didn't please fans, Sixto's strategy paid off for his 24th win against a single loss and one draw. His title was not at stake.

Rodriguez managed to roll up points with slapping blows and the only solid blow of the night was scored by Cotton. He caught Sixto on the whiskers seconds before the bell in the ninth heat.

Referee Jack Downey, the sole official, scored it 98-93. The loss was Cotton's 10th in 46 starts.

Julio Lau, 130, San Francisco, dec. Eddie Moore, 132, Oakland (4); Henry Nieto, 125, San Francisco, dec. Rudy Bejarano, 124, San Jose (4); John Cate, 129, Oakland, ko'd Jim Lewis, 128, San Leandro (3); Vincent Castro, 120, Stockton, ko'd Jose Martinez, 119, San Jose (1).

Bright Outlook For Redwood High In New Marin League Grid Season

(First in a series on prospects of varsity football teams in the new Marin County Athletic League).

By GLENN BECKER

The mail from Giantsville, that new suburb of Larkspur, tells of cautious optimism about Redwood High's football team.

A hefty, veteran line and two of the best backs in Marin County should put the Giants right in the thick of the fight for the new Marin County Athletic League's first gridiron pennant, insist Redwood supporters. In quarterback Bob Ostaggi and speedy halfback Curtis Embry, the Giants may have half of the all-league backfield to be picked at the end of the season.

The chunky Ostaggi, a senior like Embry, is a fine passer who, after switching from halfback last year, also ran effectively on accasion. He will direct Coach Bob Troppmann's wide-open wing-T with man-in-motion offense.

The 5-foot-6, 165-pound Embry resembles a greased fire-hydrant when he carries the ball. In an open field, Curtis' change-of-pace, sidestepping antics give opposing defenses fits. Last year, Embry returned a punt 93 yards for the winning touchdown, and had another of 84 yards called back.

Besides Embry and Ostaggi, Troppman welcomes back eight other lettermen. They are headed by Rick Weil, a 6-foot-2, 195-pound guard whom Troppmann is also booming for all-league recognition. Rick is a senior with fine speed who has had two years of varsity experience.

Biggest man on the squad is junior tackle Ben Chollar, who checks in at 6-3 and 225. Like all of Redwood's linemen, Ben has good mobility.

LONESOME END

Big Scott Zimmerman, 6-foot-4 190-pound senior, has moved from tackle to end this year in an attempt to fill all-leaguer Ron Reagan's shoes as the "Lonesome George" flanker. Scott will team with left guard Donn Myers, another senior, on the weak side of the unbalanced line Redwood will use.

Senior Eric Lindner, at 6-3 and 190, again will man the center post, backed up by Mike Walsh, a junior transfer from Tamalpais.

The strong right side of the line will include, besides Weil, inside tackle Conn Hallinan, outside tackle Mike Hoffman and end Jeff Skinner, all lettermen. Hoffman starred as a linebacker last year, and will play there again this year, heading a trio that Coach Troppmann is very high on. The other two are Hallinan and Sam Williams, the fullback on offense.

NEW BACKS

Troppmann has put two new men in the backfield, Williams and wingback Jim Lonsford. He expects big things from Sam, a stocky 5-10, 190-pounder. The speedy Lonsford will team with Embry as Troppmann will try to balance his fine passing attack with a strong running game.

The genial Troppmann, the most experienced coach in the league with six years at Drake and Redwood, admits that the picture looks bright at Giantsville, but he warns of lack of depth. Behind the first string only three experienced linemen are available, guard John Clum, end Rich Brear and center Mike Walsh. Otherwise, Redwood will have to depend on boys without varsity experience.

The backfield situation is better, with three boys back from last year's varsity. They are quarterback Roger Siemens and two small speedy backs, Mike Allesio and Ned Griffith.

Redwood has enlarged its physical education staff to include four new men. They are JV coaches Jim Buckley and Eldon Bennett, and frosh coaches Paul Bosque and Don Boucher. Al Endriss again will assist Troppmann with the varsity.

HANLEY'S REPORT

Once Again Sad Sam Has To Do The Job

By JACK HANLEY
I-J Correspondent

SAN FRANCISCO — Once again the burden is on Sam Jones' shoulders. The Braves are in town. Jones now has become accustomed to heavy Giant burdens. Who else is there to stop the Braves?

Just as he has been ever since he joined the Giants early in the spring, the Toothpick Man is ready and available. His nickname should be the Available Sam, not the Toothpick Man or Sad Sam. The latter handle always has been a misnomer for Sam seldom is sad.

ONE THING, however, would make him real sad. That would be the failure of the Giants to win the pennant.

Until Sam came along, Johnny Antonelli was the kingpin of Giant pitchers. But Sam is the ace now. There is no mistake about that. The fans know it. So do the Giants themselves. It is not a matter of any rivalry. It is merely a case of both fans and the Giant team now looking to Sam to stop the Braves—and that is a job for the ace.

Even when Jones posted his 20th victory of the season last Saturday after Antonelli failed in his first try at No. 20 last Thursday, there still was a reluctance on the part of some close observers to bestow the ace title on Sam.

ONE ARDENT SUPPORTER of the Giants glumly admitted when Antonelli was unable to protect the 3-1 lead he had going into the seventh inning last Thursday against Pittsburgh: "This is the first time I have had any serious doubt we might not win the pennant. Our ace was out there today and we should have won with him."

This same Giant supporter, still as loyal as ever, merely shook his head sadly when Antonelli missed his second shot at No. 20 Monday against Cincinnati.

Make no mistake about it. Antonelli gave everything he had in those two games and with a little better defensive support he might have kept the Thursday lead over the Pirates intact. And if the Giants delivered RBI raps, instead of scattering their hits Monday, Antonelli very well could have his No. 20 in the record books.

However, past games can always be replayed with a multitude of "ifs" but such paper re-plays have never yet changed the outcome of a game.

EXCLUDING ALL of the "ifs" and just looking at the record coldly and letting it speak for itself, the fact is that Jones has done the best job for the Giants. It can be argued that some of his wins resulted from late inning relief roles but instead of detracting from his 20-12 record that fact should enhance it.

Jones let it be known way back in April that he was ready and available for relief duty, that he did not consider himself a pitcher on a starting schedule of every fourth day. He volunteered for relief not from any selfish motive of possibly getting a win credit but in a wholesome manner of saving a victory for the team.

The first game Sam saved was on April 22 when Jack Sanford ran into ninth inning trouble in the Los Angeles Coliseum as Wally Moon and John Roseboro put back-to-back singles together with one out.

That night Sam, sensing possible trouble, walked down the dugout to Bill Rigney and said: "I'm ready, Boss, if you need me." With a bullpen that lacks a fireballing finisher, Rigney promptly put Sam to work after several warmup pitches.

The Toothpick Man then struck out Don Demeter and pinch-hitting Furillo to save the victory for Sanford.

What more can you ask of a man? A man like Jones? Just one additional favor:

Beat the Braves today for the sixth time this season.

Machen And Besmanoff In Bout Tonight

PORTLAND, Ore. (AP)—Heavyweight Eddie Machen has not improved appreciably since being knocked out by Ingemar Johansson, says Willie Besmanoff, who fights Machen here tonight.

"He has fought five fights since losing to Johansson, and in those fights he didn't improve," said Besmanoff. "Every fighter feels a knockout."

The unranked Besmanoff appeared rather confidant of his chances against Machen, ranked No. 4 by both Ring magazine and the National Boxing Assn., in their televised bout (ABC, 7 p.m., PDT.)

Machen has a 21-1-1 record, which includes 18 knockouts.

Besmanoff's record is 41-15-7, including 15 knockouts.

120 Antelope Killed In Special Season

SACRAMENTO (AP) — About 150 hunters shot 120 antelope in the state's first antelope hunt since 1951, the Fish and Game Department reports.

The department said there were no accidents nor game law violations reported during the week-long hunt in Modoc, Lassen and Siskiyou counties.

The biggest animal taken weighed 121 pounds, field dressed. The average was 85 pounds.

Hamilton Team Defeats Oakland, Travis Shooters

The smallbore rifle team from Hamilton Air Force Base defeated riflemen from both Travis AFB and Oakland Army Terminal this past weekend in a two-event match on the local range.

Medal winners were Lt. Col. Lyman L. Woodman (WADF), Captain K. Terrell (4th Air Force), M/Sgt. John Dolan (2867th GEEIA Sq.) and A/1c S. Kurczynski (78th Hospital). Woodman and Terrell also placed first and second among all shooters for the day, with scores of 794 and 791, respectively, out of a possible 800. Woodman's shooting netted 43 Xs (or bulls eyes) and Terrell's 35.

All competitors fired matches at 50 and 100 yards, and the highest aggregate score was the goal. The four best scores from each group of shooters comprised the installation's team score. The Travis unit, which included a husband and wife combination (S/Sgt. Gene Bordas and Captain Pauline Bordas) made second place with 3142 points, only 10 behind Hamilton.

Other HAFB riflemen in the match were M/Sgt. W. Koontz, who recently received a bronze medal for his excellence in a program at Richmond, T/Sgts. V. Gilbert and M. Saucedo, and A/1c Tom Drulard.

College Of Marin Tars Open Grid Season Friday At Davis

Coach Harry Pieper takes a small, inexperienced but spirited College of Marin football squad to Davis Friday afternoon for the Tars' opening game of the season against the California Aggies.

Kickoff for this first of four pre-league practice games is scheduled for 4:30 o'clock.

When Pieper and Assistant Coach Ed Grimm opened practice earlier this month they counted 37 heads—only four of whom have won their junior college letter. They are halfback Chuck Stuart, the 5-foot-7, 180-pound workhorse of the 1958 Mariner squad; Marty Medin, 5-8, 185, another halfback; center George Corson, 6-1, 195; and end Jim Henderson, 6-1, 190.

YOUNG TEAM

Said Pieper: "We have a young team with very little college experience, but as is alway true the coach is optimistic."

Promising newcomers to the Tar squad, according to Pieper, are halfbacks Mike Curry and Mike Rader, quarterbacks Bib Gaffney and Ed Clahan, center Fred Corson, brother of the returning letterman, tackles Bob Reynolds and Jerry Eckman and end Pete Ferrarese.

According to Pieper, Curry, Rader and Gaffney along with the veteran Stuart compose a good backfield. "We have some fine speed in many of our backs," the coach noted. "Our line is rather small for junior college competition, but a fine attitude prevails and we should have a quick forward wall. Bob Reynolds, a tackle from Tam, looks good, as does Jim Henderson, an end from Tam. The Corson brothers," he added, "are good size and show real promise."

TO NAME STARTERS

Pieper said he'd announce a probable starting lineup tomorrow.

Marin's other pre-season games are at Monterey on Sept. 26, at Foothill J.C. Oct. 3 and the first home game against the San Francisco State Junior Varsity Oct. 9.

Marin's Golden Valley Conference schedule is: Oct. 16, Sierra, at Kentfield; Oct. 24, Yuba at Marysville; Oct. 30, Napa at Kentfield; Nov. 6, Shasta at Kentfield; Nov. 13, American River at Kentfield.

Loch Lomond Guild Will Feature Citrus Foods In Festival Booth

The Loch Lomond Guild of Sunnyhills is featuring at the Grape Festival this year foods made from citrus. Fresh lemonade, cookies, cakes and breads.

Too often the fresh tangy flavor and great vitamin content supplied by citrus foods is unrealized. Along with the daily requirements of ascorbic acid needed to give us health, oranges, lemons, limes and grapefruit are tantalizing and refreshing to eat. Now is the time when these delectable fruits can do so much for the disposition and the table menu.

Keep the little people happy with a deligious crisp cookie and other delectable citrus recipes:

ORANGE REFRIGERATOR COOKIES

Sift together and set aside
2¾ cups sifted flour
¼ tsp. baking soda
¼ tsp. salt
BLEND:
1 cup shortening
½ cup brown sugar, firmly packed
Beat in one at a time
2 eggs
ADD
2 tablespoons orange juice
grated rind of 1 orange flour mixture
½ cup nutmeats, finely chopped
1 pkg. Semi-Sweet Chocolate morsels, finely ground.

Form into rolls 1" in diameter. Chill in waxed paper. Cut in ⅛" slices and place on ungreased cookie sheet.

Bake at 375° F. Time: 12 minutes. Yield: 7 dozen.

Another favorite recipe from the Loch Lomond Guild of Sunnyhills is:

"ORANGE DREAM CAKE"

2 cups sifted cake flour
1⅓ cups sugar
2 teaspoons baking powder (double action)
¼ teaspoon soda
¼ teaspoon salt
⅔ cup shortening
1 tsp. grated orange rind
¼ tsp. grated lemon rind
⅓ cup orange juice
2 eggs, unbeaten
2 tablespoons Lemon Juice
(Do not add until end of mixing)

Sift flour, sugar, baking powder, soda and salt into mixing bowl. Drop in shortening. (No creaming needed). Add grated fruit rinds, orange juice and water; beat 200 strokes (2 minutes by hand or on mixer at low speed). Scrape bowl and spoon or beater. Add eggs and beat 200 strokes more (2 minutes on mixer). Add lemon juice and blend. Bake in two square 8 x 8 x 2" pans in moderately hot oven 375° F. 25-30 minutes. Chill layers. Spread orange cream filling between layers and on top of cake. Store cake in refrigerator several hours before serving. Cut in 1-inch slices. Keep leftover cake in refrigerator.

ORANGE CREAM FILLING

Mix together 1 cup coconut, 3 teaspoons grated orange rind, ¼ cup sugar, 2 tablespoons orange juice, 1 tablespoon lemon juice; let stand about 15 minutes. Whip 1 cup heavy cream; fold in coconut mixture.

For those who have an electric blender bring it back on the worktable and give it it's due.

Even if you don't care much for buttermilk, you should like this refresher. Also those who are diet conscious will find this appetizing beverage an easy way to watch calories.

ORANGE BUTTERMILK (for 2)

½ cup orange juice
2 tablespoons sugar or saccarin
½ inch square piece of outer rind of orange
1½ cup buttermilk

Blend in your electric blender about 20 seconds. Try this with yogurt too—delicious!

ORANGE FLIP (for 4)

1 can frozen orange juice
2¼ cups water
2 or 3 eggs
2 tablespoons sugar or saccarin
dash of salt

These are tall glasses. A breeze with a blender and another sneaky way to serve eggs (undetected) to small fry who are non-eggers.

FOOD STILL FAMILY'S BEST BUY

Today we pay no greater percentage of our pay checks for our food than our fathers spent for theirs. The average family food bill in the 1920s was about 25 cents of the wage dollar. This is still true today.

Although food prices as reported by the Bureau of Labor Statistics have gone up 17 per cent since 1947-49, per capita disposable income has risen 42 per cent.

Typical families in America buy their food today—a wonderfully abundant, varied and nutritious supply of food—with only 25 per cent of that net disposable income after taxes.

In 12 countries of Europe in recent years, food costs have averaged 50 per cent of family income.

Pineapple Relish

In this exotic recipe for Curried Pineapple Relish the ingredients are only four in number and, of course, salt to taste. The curry provides a hint of the exotic East. Here's how to make this delicious relish: Drain a number 2½ can of pineapple chunks very well. Melt two tablespoons butter or margarine in a medium-sized skillet. Stir in a dash of salt and ¼ teaspoon of curry powder. Add the drained pineapple chunks and heat quickly, stirring to coat each pineapple chunk with the butter-curry mixture. Last, add two tablespoons sherry, stir and heat again. Serve hot. Makes 6 servings.

BETTER MEALS

County Attention Focused On Food

The Independent-Journal is joining in a nation-wide presentation of all that is new and basic in foods, and how to convert them almost effortlessly and most economically into an endless variety of healthful, energy producing taste treats, in its "Better Meals Build Better Families" campaign.

The exposition, in which the city food markets, aided and abetted by the nation's vast farm, dairy, and food processing industries, take the lead, comes most appropriately at the beginning of a new fall season.

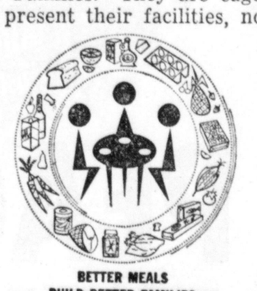

This is the time when housewives and mothers turn their attention anew, after a summer of outdoor fun for their families, to thinking about one of their most important responsibilities:

This is—keeping dad, who is now starting the busiest and most active part of his year, and the children, who are going back to their "business" of learning, well fed against the heavy physical demands of the fall and the winter season.

Though the food stores, with literally thousands of products to choose from on their shelves and in their bins, are taking the lead, many other stores and industries also are joining to emphasize the basic principle that "Better Meals Build Better Families."

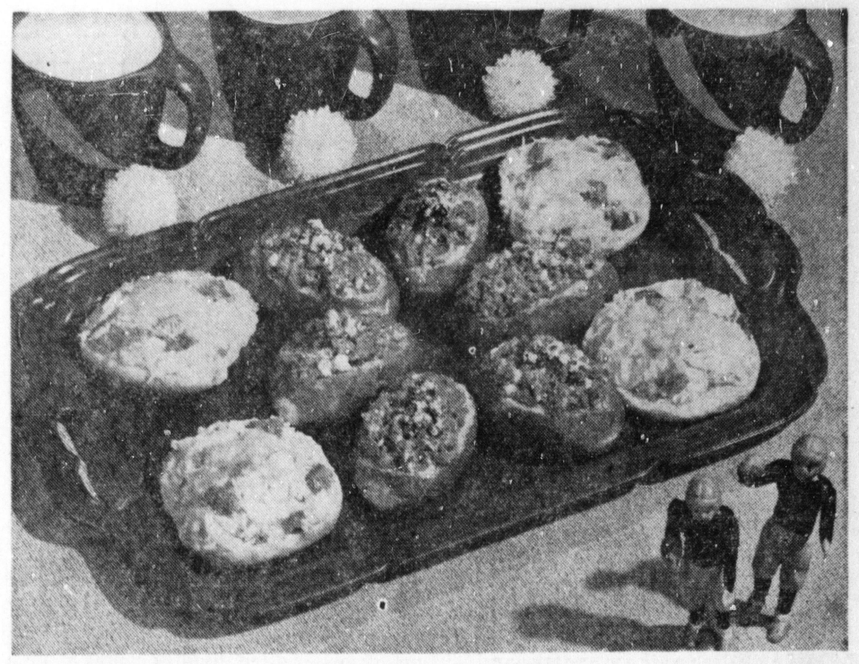

Among these are the merchants who provide the wonder working modern appliances, such as the new refrigerator-freezer combinations, automatic ranges and other cooking devices, that contribute so much to helping homemakers lighten both their work loads and the drain on the family budget.

Many of the restaurants also are participating because they are proudly conscious that they too are concerned in the fact that "Better Meals Make Better Families." They are eager to present their facilities, not only for serving dad at lunch time, or mother on a special occasion, but the whole family as well.

Similarly some of the stores, justifiably contending that "better meals" are meals that are more graciously served, are participating by presenting displays of table settings, furnishings and all those niceties of service that help to bring the family closer together at meal time, in a more pleasant atmosphere.

FAT MUGS of ice cold milk along with hefty open-face sandwiches are perfect refreshment for after the football game or afternoon at the baseball park.

Cheesy Open-Face Sandwiches Satisfy Appetite After The Game

Anyone who has ever attended a football game knows that an afternoon of cheering for the team leaves a person ravenously hungry.

Healthy teenagers swarm home to raid the refrigerator. Chances are Dad and Mom follow close on their heels.

Prepare for this onslaught in advance. Plan refreshments of hefty open-face sandwiches to be served with fat mugs of ice-cold milk. Use two different spread combinations—ham and blue cheese, Cheddar cheese and crabmeat.

The ham and blue cheese combination suits a lad's taste, while the other spread is more to a lass's liking. The flavor of cheese speaks out in the former for blue cheese is notably piquant.

The cheese-crabmeat mixture tastes similar to a light salad. Fresh tomato and cucumber contribute to this saladlike touch, and their flavors blend nicely with those of sharp Cheddar cheese and crabmeat.

HAM AND BLUE CHEESE SPREAD
1½ Cups

1 cup ground cooked ham
½ cup crumbled blue cheese
2 tablespoons mayonnaise
2 tablespoons pickle relish
1 tablespoon lemon juice
2 teaspoons prepared mustard

Combine all ingredients and mix well. Use as is for a sandwich spread or hollow out French rolls, fill them with the spread and broil until cheese melts. The sandwiches may be topped with additional crumbled blue cheese if desired.

CHEDDAR CHEESE AND CRABMEAT SPREAD
2 Cups

1 6½-oz. can crabmeat
1 medium tomato, diced
½ cup coarsely chopped cucumber
1 teaspoon salt
⅛ teaspoon pepper
2 tablespoons mayonnaise
1 cup shredded sharp Cheddar cheese

Flake crabmeat and remove cartilage. Combine with remaining ingredients, mixing well.

SO REFRESHING

Pears Are Low In Calories And Favorites With Families

By CECILY BROWNSTONE

A summer visitor lingers into fall, and this guest we're happy to have stay on.

So obliging! Ready to pitch in at any hour of the day — breakfast, lunch, supper, snacktime. Here's a mealtime companion that's both refreshing and versatile.

It's the pear we're welcoming, adding up its charms and practical contributions to family fare.

But pears need understanding treatment to bring out their best qualities. If they are a green shade and quite firm when you bring them home from market, leave them in their wrapping in a cool room in the house. After they turn yellow and yield slightly to the touch, put them in the refrigerator so you can serve them chilled.

Pears make fine partners. Put together a sandwich of date-and-nut bread with a filling of mild soft cheddar cheese; pack it into the lunch box for dessert along with a cold ripe pear.

Ever discover how well the pear and orange suit each other? Pare, halve, seed and slice pears into orange juice; serve at breakfast time. Or turn that combination into a company-time compote for lunch or supper by adding fresh orange sections and slivers of syrup-preserved ginger.

Do your young children like finger food? Cut unpeeled pears into eighths and remove seeds; place on a paper plate. Just the right size for youngsters to pick up and nibble, and full of nutrients.

Weight-watchers, too, can enjoy these juicy nibbles for dessert because a medium-sized pear counts only about 70 calories.

The pear is a fine companion for meat. Want to glorify that boneless pork shoulder butt? Insert whole cloves in it, roast it in the oven, baste with ginger ale; slice and center on a platter. Pare the pears, halve and seed. Beat some currant jelly with a little prepared mustard and spoon some into each pear cavity.

If lamb chops or roast lamb are on the menu, change the pear garnish to green mint jelly and top with pine nuts.

The raspberry turnover is a perfect mate for fresh Bartlett pears. Make your own using drained frozen raspberries or raspberry preserves and pastry dough. Or take the easy way and use the excellent puff-paste turnovers that now come frozen and need only to be baked. Because these frozen raspberry turnovers are large, they may be cut in half after baking and sprinkled with confectioners' sugar.

HOUSEWIFE NEEDS INFORMATION ON WHAT FOODS ARE AVAILABLE

The overwhelming number of American Housewives start planning menus for meals they will serve their families, from the pages of their favorite newspapers. The reasons, verified by studies made in many different parts of the country, are not hard to understand.

To plan better meals for her family the housewife needs information on what foods are available immediately and most conveniently.

To do an efficient job of shopping and to make sure she is getting the best values for her money, she must be informed as to what stores are offering what, and at what prices.

This is the information she looks forward to in every issue of the newspaper.

As an example of surveys verifying this practice is one from Denver, Colo., reporting that 92.2 percentof he housewives interviewed said that newspapers helped them most in their grocery shopping.

Newspapers have added to services rendered homemakers in preparing better meals for their families by presenting recipes, menus and household hints. Another study shows that up to 83 percent of the women generally clip recipes from the food pages.

It is in this spirt that the Better Meals Build Better Families Program, is dedicated to housewives.

CHILDREN WILL come running for "Fuddy-Duddies" once they have tried these wholesome sweets. Bite-size, they are just right for the preschoolers. Fuddy-Duddies please mother too. In addition to being good for the children, they are easy to make and involve no baking. Crispy Caramel Apples will make a hit with the school-age crowd. Juicy apples are coated with caramel and then rolled in oven-toasted rice cereal. The use of cereal on the apples in lieu of expensive nuts, not only decreases the cost, but it increases the nutritive value of the treat.

Brand Names Best Guides To Quality

Overlapping all of the great array of conveniences that have been developed for modern shoppers is one that — though put to use more frequently, perhaps, than any other—is seldom thought of in this sense.

It is the now firmly fixed custom among manufacturers of giving their products brand names.

In no other field of activity has this custom been carried to greater lengths than in the food field, where it has become the homemaker's guide to the specific items she wants, and in which she knows from experience that she will find satisfaction.

In addition, it has become her guide to successful experimentation in extending her repertoire of better meals. For the new product offered under the familiar brand name is something she can accept with confidence.

This is true because, when the food processor affixes his brand name to products, he is in effect staking his reputation on their quality and their ability to give satisfaction. After all, should they fail to do so, his business would suffer.

Caramel Apples, Fuddy-Duddies For School-Agers

Favorites for the children are these special treats which are also high in nutritive value.

CEREAL FUDDY-DUDDIES

¼ pound (4 squares) semi-sweet chocolate
32 plastic or heavy wooden picks
½ pound marshmallows
1½ cups oven-toasted rice cereal, regular, presweetened, or cocoa flavor

Place chocolate in custard cup in pan of hot water and let melt. Insert picks in marshmallows and dip and roll in melted chocolate to cover sides and bottom leaving top uncoated. Roll in cereal. Stand upright on waxed paper to cool. Yield: 32 confections.

CARAMEL APPLES

2 tablespoons water
8 heavy wooden skewers
8 medium-sized eating apples, washed
3 cups oven-tested rice cereal, regular, presweetened or cocoa flavor.

Combine caramels and water in small covered saucepan; place over low heat and melt caramels, stirring frequently. Insert wooden skewers in stem ends of apples. Swirl apples in caramel mixture to cover completely. Lift out of caramel mix and hold over pan to drain. Swirl apples while draining. Roll in cereal at once. Stand on waxed paper to cool and set. Yield: 8 Caramel Apples.

Add Onions To Orange Salad

Ingredients: 2 medium-sized oranges, 2 cups bite-size pieces romaine (pack down lightly), ¼ cup paper-thin red onioin rings, salad dressing made from a dry mix designed for Caesar salad and flavored with cheese and garlic.

Method: Pare oranges so no white membrane remains; cut sections away from dividing membranes. Cut each section in half crosswise. Arrange over romaine in salad bowl. Add onion rings. Cover and chill until serving time; then toss with a little of the salad dressing, adding it sparingly because it is strong. Makes 2 servings.

Try This Recipe For Savory Roast

Ingredients: 1 fresh loin pork roast (about 5 pounds and from shoulder end) ½ teaspoon garlic salt.

Method: Have meatman saw backbone of pork roast free from rib and other bones. Mix together the seasoned salt and garlic salt; rub over top of roast. Place on a rack in a shallow pan; have fat side up and insert meat thermometer in center. Roast in a slow (325 degrees) oven until thermometer registers 185 degrees—45 to 50 minutes per pound. Do not add water; do not cover. Allow to stand 15 minutes or so in warm place before carving.

Food Poisoning Blamed On Cook

CHICAGO (UPI)—The cook is responsible for most cases of food poisoning, says a University of Chicago scientist.

Not once in five million times is the food contaminated when it leaves the manufacturer, said Dr. Gail M. Dack microbiology professor and director of the university's Food Research Institute.

Improper storage usually causes the spoiling and the food poisoning which follows, he said.

"It makes no difference whether the food is improperly stored in an overheated kitchen in midwinter or in a picnic hamper in midsummer," he said.

Ham, cooked meats, gravies, cooked poultry, custard-filled bakery products, milk and potato salad must be stored in the refrigerator. Dack said they spoil within seven hours of summer-time temperatures.

Dack offered these precautions to keep food wholesome:

—Put perishables in the refrigerator promptly, and keep them there until ready for use.

—Do not refreeze frozen foods after they have thawed.

—Use a pressure cooker for home canning and follow instruction carefully. Botulinum spores, fatal in 65 out of 100 cases, can be destroyed only at very high temperatures in most foods.

—Do not use large refrigerator containers. These take too long for the cold to reach the center of the food, and meanwhile germs will grow and produce their poisons. Large amounts of food prepared for a party or picnic should be placed on trays in thin layers.

—Commercially canned foods occasionally go bad, so never pick a swollen can off the grocery shelf.

Sales Will Benefit The Building Fund

Three Marin homes decorated for the holidays will be shown this year as part of the annual Christmas greens and decorations sale at the Marin Art and Garden Center, it was announced at the Guild's recent "kick-off" tea held at the Ross home of Mrs. Russell G. Smith.

Wednesday, Dec. 2, has been selected as the date of the pre-holiday house tour. Afterwards, visitors will have tea at the Center in Ross.

The traditional sale of fresh greens will be held at the Center on Saturday, Dec. 19.

Mrs. Victor Guilder, president of the Decorations Guild, presided at a business meeting during the tea and introduced Mrs. Henry Picard, whom she has appointed co-chairman of arrangements for the two-part event. Mrs. Robert L. Tuckey, the other chairman, was in Sacramento at a state garden club convention on the day of the tea.

The three homes selected for the tour will be announced later. Each will be decorated appropriately, one in old-fashioned motif, one traditionally, and the third in contemporary manner.

Mrs. Guilder, Mrs. Tuckey and Mrs. Dion Tamsey-Raisan each will design the holiday decor for one of the houses. Other members of the Guild will help in making the wreaths, ornaments, and other decorations, all of which will be for sale.

Profits from the two-part event will benefit the Center's construction program, including the Decorations Guild's new building.

POINTING OUT the dates of the annual Christmas greens and decorations Sale, Dec. 2, when there will be a tour of three Marin homes decorated for the holidays; and Dec. 19 when the sale of fresh greens will be held is Mrs. Henry Picard, center, co-chairman; and left to right, Mesdames Peter Schubert and Victor Guilder, Guild president. WCTU Meet On Friday, Will Install

At the regular meeting of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union on Friday at the home of Miss Irene Barstow, 824 E street, San Rafael, the 11:30 business session will be followed by noontide prayer and luncheon. The subject this month is "Education Lane" and the scripture reading for Friday's meeting is "Ponder the path of thy feet and let all thy ways be established."

The afternoon program will begin with devotions led by Mrs. H. R. Soderstrom. Topic for discussion by the group is: "How May We Help the Schools to know the truth about the traffic in liquor and the value of traveling the Total Abstinence Highway?"

Officers for the year will also be installed.

Thought for the day is "The way to defeat a lie is the constant, earnest, sincere, enthusiastic presentation of the truth."

An important event of this month will be the National WCTU Convention at San Antonio, Tex., Sept. 25-29.

October 3-7 the World WCTU Convention will be held in Mexico City, and on Oct. 19-22 the state convention at Stockton. It is hoped that some of our members will be able to attend the state convention.

Leaves For College

Patricia Shannon, daughter of the Robert Shannons of The Reedlands, has left for her first year at college at San Diego University for Women. Patricia was graduated last year from the Convent of the Sacred Heart in San Francisco.

STANFORD RECEPTION SATURDAY

The Marin Stanford Alumni Club is holding an informal reception at the Mozart Kaufman's in Kentfield on Saturday afternoon, from 2 to 5 o'clock for the score of Marinites who will matriculate at Stanford this fall and their parents. Swimming and badminton are in store for the afternoon activities.

A Stanford faculty member and a freshman woman sponsor are expected to attend, plus those students now attending Stanford from Marin County.

The 20 new Stanford students include: Thomas Brigham, Jill Clumeck, Mary Cummings, Trevor Cushman, Jeffrey Daly, Frederick Drexler, Gerald Fullerton, Michael Harrison, Sally Lane, Stephen Lieberman, Patricia Mahoney, Stephen Mathews, Herbert Meadowcroft, Rhea Pendergrass, David Robertson, Stefanie Rodrigo, Robert Watkins, Judith Webb, John Wolfe, Timothy Farrell.

Those alumni helping with arrangements are: Jim Pott, life-guard; Barbara Wagner and Paula Kern, reception committee; Jane Ellis and Mimi Griffin, arrangements and decorations; Virgil Hollis, clean-up details.

In New York

Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Patrick of Sausalito flew to New York last Saturday where, for a week, they will see plays and visit friends. Mrs. Patrick (Greta) will continue on to Europe by plane, for travel on the Continent until November. Both camera enthusiasts, Greta is armed with a movie camera for a record of her trip. Mr. Patrick returns to the coast for a visit at Lake Tahoe before ending his vacation.

Reed School Coffee Hour Tomorrow

As a means of acquainting them with the school, parents of children entering Reed School for the first time, are invited to a coffee hour in the newly refurbished teachers' room tomorrow at 10 a.m.

Hostessing will be Mesdames M. W. Neal, president of the Reed unit of the Parent-Teacher Club; James Contos, hospitality chairman and James Moore, membership chairman. The teachers' room and its adjoining patio have been enlarged and redecorated through the combined efforts of the Reed School District, the Reed District Parent-Teacher Club and the Reed unit of the club.

Present to meet the parents will be Robert Gaw, Reed School principal; Paul Stouffer, district superintendent; Robert Davidson, school psychologist; Miss Dorothy Tolpegin, librarian; Newell McMullen, speech therapist; Chris Bogios, music instructor, and Mrs. Katherine De Brecht, school nurse.

A quick tour of the new library room will be taken during recess time with a more formal open house scheduled for later in the year, according to Mrs. Neal.

The first membership meeting for the Reed unit will be held Thursday, Sept. 24 at 7:30 p.m. in the Reed auditorium. Teachers will be introduced and Dr. Aubrey Roden, assistant professor of educational psychology at the University of California will speak. His title will be "Modern Children with Old-Fashioned Problems."

Exchange Student Program To Be Subject At Brunch

At a brunch tomorrow at the home of Mrs. Robert A. Walker in San Rafael, she will entertain committee members of the San Rafael American Field Service Chapter of which she is president. Also guests will be other women interested in San Rafael High School's 1960 Exchange Student program.

Jill Seigler recently returned from Turkey and Kay Goff has just arrived in Italy for six months of schooling. An exchange student from Denmark, Nina Knudsen, is now at San Rafael High.

Among those at the brunch will be Mesdames D. H. Beckstead, George Steiger, W. T. Bowers, George Gester, J. W. McFarlane, Frederick Evans, Robert Evju, W. C. McCammon, Kenneth McKinnon, Robert Pendergrass, W. R. Armor, George W. Magladry, L. J. Dellwig, Charles Sigler, J. B. Goff, Ralph Phillips, A. W. Malet, and W. E. Veron.

COUNTRY DAY SCHOOL

Full Day Activity Planned For Saturday Ranch Party

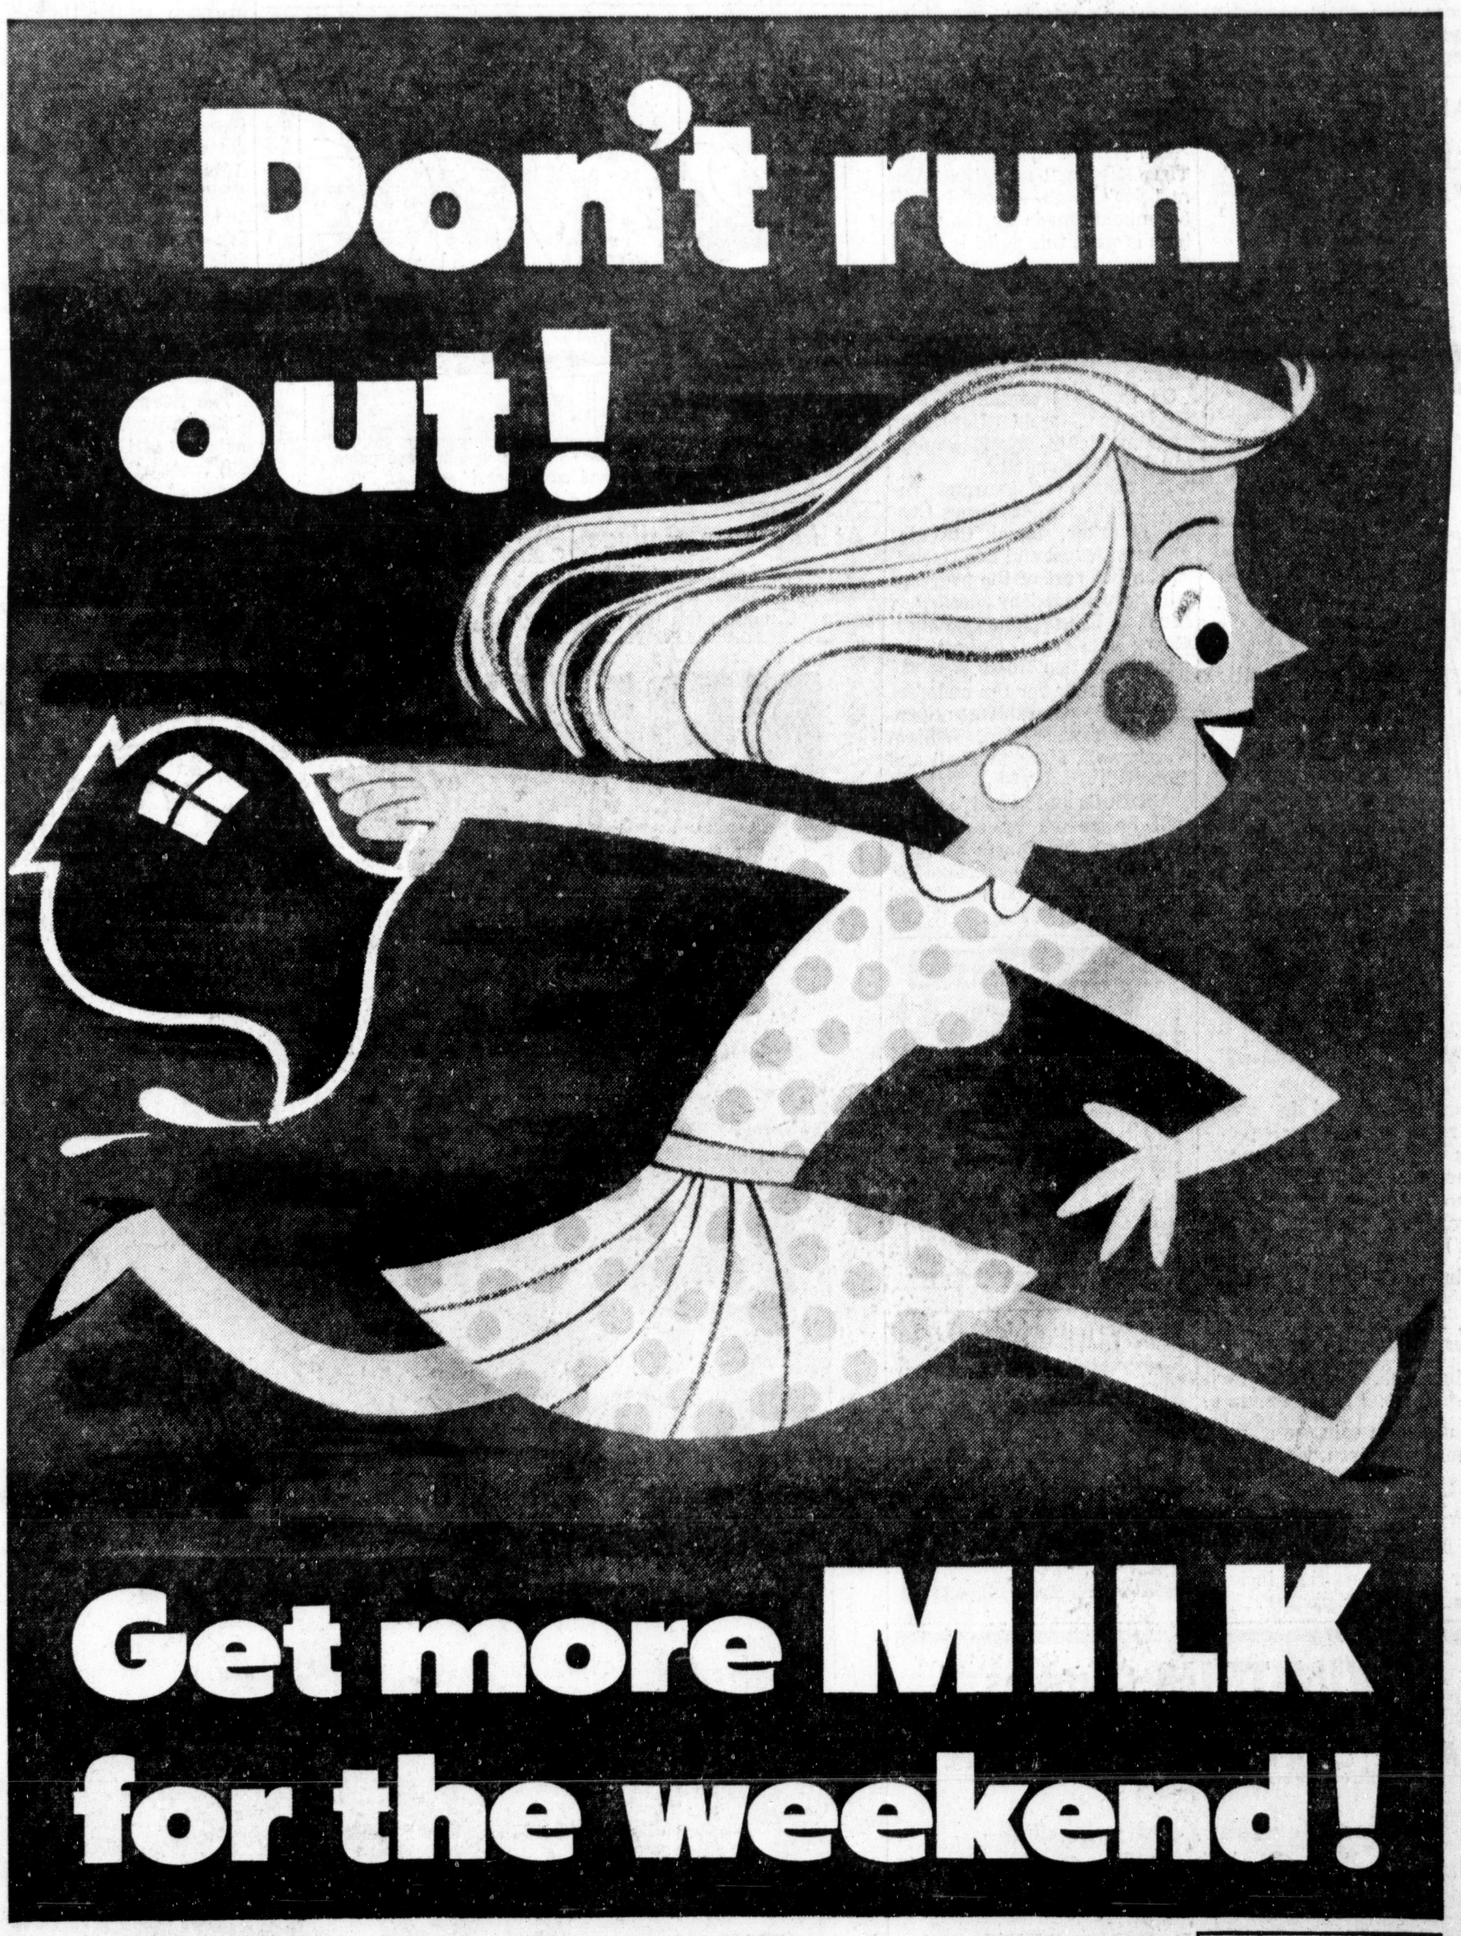

One of the Bay Area's most active and growing educational projects, the Marin Country Day School, will hold its second annual Ranch Party on Saturday at the Berrien Anderson and Richard Van Hoosear ranches in Sonoma.

Proceeds of the affair will be used in the rapidly expanding building project currently under way to accommodate the phenonenal enrollment growth of students from Marin County and San Francisco.

A full day of activity has been planned by the sponsoring Parents Group headed by Dr. Philip Bailey of Sausalito. Guests are invited to swim in the afternoon before enjoying a special Chef Cardini dinner at the Anderson ranch. Dancing under the stars will follow at the adjacent Van Hoosear ranch to the strains of a popular combo.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Westerbeke are chairmen of the events and are being assisted by parents Mesdames Philip Bailey, invitations; Cynthia Owens and Ernest Nevers, hostesses; James Heynemann and Stephen Heller, decorations, and Messrs. Craig Wallace and Robert Menzies, hosts, and A. R. Imlay and Richard Hartshorne, gate.

Reservations are being accepted through tomorrow and may be made by calling Mrs. Brace Hayden or the school office in Corte Madera.

Sears-Littell Rites Held In Strawberry

At the Strawberry home of her sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth E. Rall, on Saturday afternoon, Mrs. Catherine Nabours Littell of San Francisco became the bride of Frederick B. Sears, also of San Francisco.

The Rev. Samuel A. Wright Jr. officiated at the double ring ceremony which was attended by close friends of the couple.

For her wedding the bride wore a turquoise tweed suit with a short jacket and flared skirt. Both veil and shoes were brown and the costume was accented with jewelry in varied hues of blues and greens. Multicolored flowers formed her hand bouquet.

Matron of honor for her sister was Mrs. Rall who wore a brown suit with a white hat and brown and beige jewelry. Karl D. Lyon of San Francisco was best man.

Elizabeth Arnold Sears, six-year-old daughter of the groom, as flower girl, carried a bouquet of white flowers, and white flowers also decorated the mantel before which the ceremony was performed.

The new Mrs. Sears is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert K. Nabours of Manhattan, Kansas. She has two brothers, Dr. Robert K. Nabours Jr. of San Diego, and Dr. Richard D. Nabours of Los Angeles. She is a graduate of Kansas State College, and is currently employed at Fibreboard Paper Products Corp., in San Francisco.

The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Elliott S. Sears of Lantana, Fla. He is a graduate of the University of Missouri and has a master's degree from the University of California. He is employed at Johnson and Lewis Advertising, Inc. in San Francisco.

The couple will be at home to friends at 1472 Filbert street in San Francisco.

Deer Park, Central Faculties Honored

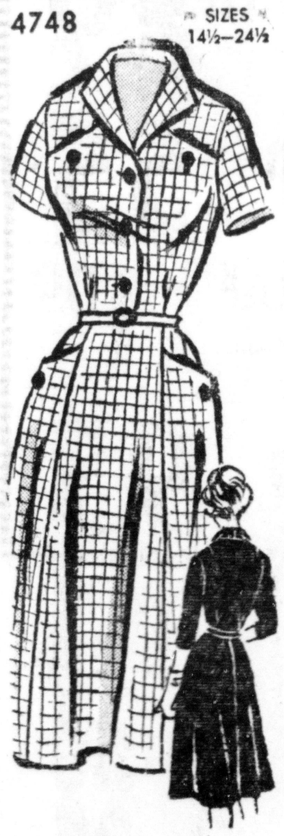

The combined Deer Park and Central School board members, headed by the presidents Mrs. Harold Walker and Mrs. C. R. Burns, recently gave a welcome luncheon for their teachers and room mothers.

Bruce McDonald, principal of both schools, welcomed the teachers and thanked the board members for their interest and work.

The U-shaped tables, in the Deer Park multi-use room, were decorated with ivy and fuchsias. The place cards were arranged to seat the room mothers with their respective teachers, thus enabling them to become better acquainted.

Hilldale Guild Barbecue Set For Sept. 26

For the third successive year on Saturday, Sept. 26, the Hilldale Guild of Sunny Hills will present "A Night In Old Vienna." Setting for the yearly barbecue celebration will be the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Bohanna in San Anselmo. Members of the Guild have chosen a moonlight theme and soft waltz music under candlelight will enhance the cocktail and dinner hour. Members are already practicing for the Strauss Waltz Contest.

General chairman of this fund raising affair to benefit the 60th Annual Grape Festival, Saturday, Oct. 3, at Sunny Hills, is Mrs. Robert Bohanna. The Guild will man the "Animal Zoo" booth—colorful stuffed animals made by the members is what this guild is noted for.

Working on the decorations committee for the barbecue are Mesdames Carl Weber, Alex McClure, John Carr and Peter Skaer.

On the food committee are Mesdames Harold Henricks, Marston Thall, Jack MacAuley and Phillip Kendall.

In charge of gourmet refreshments are Mesdames Carrol Stoerker, Lloyd Christie, William Doucet and Leo Dwyer.

The fun part of the program will be provided by Mesdames Richard Lloyd, Robert Rouse, Roger McKenzie, Robert Bohanna and Leo Miller.

Responsible for the melodies will be Mesdames James Spencer, Laurena Fallon, William Vanderbelt, Marston Thall and Ron Hill.

Cocktails and hors-d 'oeuvres will be passed by committee members Mesdames Robert England, Phillip Schneider, Lloyd Christie and Edward Ericson.

Official Pays Visit To Blythedale Lodge

Large baskets of flowers topped by a Japanese umbrella at officers' stations formed the decor when Mrs. Harry Wall, district deputy president of District 61, Rebekah Assembly of California, paid her official visit to Blythedale Rebekah Lodge No 305 recently. The meeting was held in the Mill Valley Odd Fellows Hall.

Mrs. Wall was escorted to the seat of honor by her deputy marshall, Mrs. Leo Berger. They were introduced to members and guests by noble grand Mrs. Myrtle Dahl, who presided at the meeting. Mrs. Wall addressed the lodge and gave instructions.

Mrs. John Luetke, chairman of the evening's program, was assisted by Mesdames Albert Hughes, Ama Hicks, Tony Fontes, Brownell Carpenter, John Robertson and Eva Frazier.

Dressed in a Japanese kimono and carrying an umbrella and fan, committee members formed a double line of escort for Mrs. Wall and Mrs. Berger. Mrs. Wall, escorted by Mrs. Luetke and Mrs. Berger by Mrs. Godfrey Ita, were led to stand under two large Japanese umbrellas, where each was presented with an umbrella. A number of silver coins attached to the roots of the umbrellas formed a shower as the umbrellas were opened.

During the presentation Mrs. Dahl sang "Let a Smile Be Your Umbrella," accompanied on the piano by Mrs. James Anderson, and a poem composed by Mrs. Carpenter was recited by Mesdames Carpenter, Fontes and James Rhoades.

Mrs. Luetke, as Goodwill chairman for the district, announced that a trip by bus to the Odd Fellows Home in Saratoga is being planned for Oct. 11, and Mr. Hughes announced that the Sept. 24 meeting will be "Brothers Night." He will be chairman for that evening.

Following the meeting, refreshments were served on tables decorated with flowers and small Japanese umbrellas.

Among guests present were Mrs. Mary Bruni, noble grand, and Mrs. James Williams, vice grand of Golden Star lodge; Mrs. Marie Irving, president of the Ladies Auxiliary, San Rafael Patriarch Militant; Mrs. William Amos, area chairman of the United Nations Pilgrimage for Youth; Mrs. T. E. MacDermand of Loyal Rebekah Lodge 215 of San Francisco; and Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Garner of Olive Branch No. 17 from Bodie, Wyo.

Mrs. Mary Hooper To Address MV League Of Women Voters

Mrs. Mary Louise Hooper, an American Quaker and grandmother who won Phi Beta Kappa honors at Stanford University at the age of 45, will be guest speaker at tomorrow's general meeting and luncheon of the Mill Valley League of Women Voters.

Mrs. Hooper will speak at 1 p.m. following the luncheon at the Mill Valley Golf Clubhouse. Anyone interested in hearing her is invited.

The only white person ever to have worked inside the All-Negro African National Congress, Mrs. Hooper represented the African National Congress of South Africa as delegate to the All-African People's Conference held in 1958 in Ghana.

As a permanent resident of Durban in South Africa from 1955 to 1957, she kept open house for friends of all races. Among these friends were Albert J. Lutuli, three-time president of the African General Congress, and Alan Paton, author of the famous novel "Cry the Beloved Country."

Arrested without warrant as a supporter of the non-violent struggle for voting rights and equal privileges for all races, Mrs. Hooper spent several days in a Johannesburg jail. Although she was released by court order and won damages for false arrest, she lost a suit to have a deportation order set aside.

Not wishing to have a deportation stamped on her passport, she, with assistance of African friends, slipped over the border into Bechuanaland and so to Rhodesia and back to the United States.

When she is asked the reason for her willingness to go to jail for the African cause, she says "I happen to believe that human freedom is the most important thing I know."

Mrs. Hooper worked since 1958 as west coast representative of the South African Defense Fund headed by the Right Rev. James A. Pike, Episcopal Bishop of the Diocese of California, and John Gunther.

MRS. MARY LOUISE HOOPER, only white person ever to have worked inside the all-negro African national congress, will be guest speaker tomorrow at the Mill Valley League of Women Voters' general fall meeting.

Children's Classes In Creative Dance, Ballet To Begin

A complete program of creative dance and ballet for children from the pre-school years to high school age is offered by Dick and Marguerite Ford as they begin their fall term Sept. 21. Classes are held at the Ford's studio at 169 Miller avenue in Mill Valley and at Carpenters Hall on Lindaro street in San Rafael.

New this year in Mill Valley is a ballet class for older children (10 years and older) who have not had ballet training and a charm course for eighth graders, both classes conducted by Marguerite Ford.

In San Rafael, besides its regular classes, the Dick Ford Dance Group is offering a class in modern dance for nine to 12-year-olds, which rounds out the dance program to make a complete dancing experience available to young people in the community. New also in San Rafael is a tumbling class for five and six years old boys.

Both the Mill Valley and San Rafael groups have their usual classes and are taking registrations now for the fall semester.

Coordinators for the groups are Mrs. Robert Jenkins of Mill Valley and Mrs. Max Kimball of Fairfax, who will answer any questions about their groups.

Tennis Club Fashion Tea To Be Tuesday

First social event of the fall season for the Mill Valley Tennis Club will be a benefit fashion tea on Tuesday afternoon, Sept. 22, at the clubhouse.

Mrs. Jack Murphy will be coordinator for the showing of the newest styles in fall apparel which will be paraded around the pool starting at 2 o'clock.

Modeling the fashions from Marin shops will be nine club-member models with commentary provided by Mrs. Edwin Cechettini. They are Mesdames Alfred Rider, Bartlett Grimes, William Barber, Lloyd Postel, Frank Schroeder, David Stephens, Eugene Crawford, Jack Creighton and Miss Stephanie Wickham.

Mrs. Murphy will be assisted by Mesdames Warren Hodgdon and George Pritzker.

In charge of tea arrangements are Mrs. Jack Younger, chairman of women's activities for the club, and Mrs. Donald Harper.

Pouring will be Mesdames P. T. Smith, Jack Hughes, Russell Mills and Stewart Bostwick, and assisting will be Mesdames Gerald Nowell, Robert Stott, Melvin Schallock and Lowell Jett.

Mrs. Younger and Mrs. Harper are taking reservations, which closes today, and deadline for cancellations is Friday at 11 a.m.

Cross' In Europe

Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Cross of Sausalito are in Europe for several weeks having left by air and arriving in Copenhagen via the Polar route. In Germany, they plan a trip on the Rhine.

Their itinerary includes Switzerland and stops in the cities of Venice, Rome, Nice and Paris. After leaving France, they go to Brussels and from there meet Belgian friends in Ghent who will join them touring Belgium and Holland. After London, the Crosses hope to find time for some golf in Scotland and leaving the British Isles, will arrive home in mid-October.

West Marin Dance Workshop Sessions To Begin Monday

The West Marin Dance Group's executive committee met recently at the home of Mrs. Philip Dick and planned with Mr. and Mrs. Bertell Ford an exciting program for the group's coming year. Mrs. Robert Allen, Mrs. Robert Pitchford and Mrs. Dina Angress of Marshall were present in their capacities as group chairmen.

Children from Marshall, Nicasio, Bolinas, Pt. Reyes and Inverness will participate in three different dance groups, each group divided according to age and experience. The first session will be held Sept. 21 for the pre-school, pre-ballet and dance workshop groups at 2:30 p.m., 3:15 p.m. and 4 p.m. respectively. The teacher will be Judy Modell of Mill Valley.

The oldest group of girls, most of whom have been dancing for two years, will have a new class, the Workshop Class. They will experiment with choreography, working out their own ideas in dance form and they are invited to participate in the Mill Valley field day which draws performer and observers from all over the bay area at the close of the school year. They will work out their own dance and costumes for this event. They will continue, of course, with their regular routine of exercise and ballet and modern dance techniques.

There will be the pre-ballet class for younger a group of school age-girls which will continue and expand the type of work they have been doing.

The preschool group will continue much as they have been which in the mothers' opinions, could hardly be improved upon. This group will appear on television sometime during the year with Dick Ford's Hop, Skip and Dance program on Channel 9.

Those interested in seeking further information may contact any of the mothers mentioned above or Mrs. Sidney Parks of Inverness, publicity chairman.

FUN WITH FOOD AND HELPFUL HINTS

"Mary, Mary, smiling Mary, how do your dahlias grow?" Very well—but isn't Jim the hungry one, when he comes in from his garden chores? There's a quick answer to THAT one: Fry a few slices of ARMOUR TREET and toast and butter hamburger buns. Slip the hot TREET into them and let him enjoy the delectable flavor of one of the simplest, satisfying-est of sandwiches.

Canned corn that tastes like fresh? It IS possible—open a can of NIBLETS, sniff the sweet, golden kernels. Then heat and butter them—now taste that blithe, just-off-the-cob flavor? NIBLETS Corn has such crisp, fresh goodness because it is cut almost as soon as it leaves the field, then canned and cooked by a special quick process that holds every bit of flavor intact.

★ Beaten egg whites will hold their stiffness longer if you add a pinch of baking powder to them before whipping.

Office and industry folk have periodic breaks in the day's routine; why not the world's most faithful worker, the lady of the house? Stop for a chocolate break . . . see how it refreshes you. Make it chocolate milk or hot chocolate; with GHIRARDELLI'S Instant Chocolate, it's a minute's work. Add the GHIRARDELLI Instant Chocolate to hot or chilled milk, stir and enjoy.

A slice of yellow cheese, a mellow Autumn apple and PREMIUM SNOW FLAKE Saltines—try THAT on the man of your heart . . . watch him beam! Crisp tangy PREMIUM SNOW FLAKES enhance the flavors of cheese and other foods to perfection (they're good, all by themselves, too). Buy the big box; the re-closable stack packs keep PREMIUM SNOW FLAKE SALTINES crisp and delicious to the very last cracker.

Families which meet at the breakfast table are happy ones. And I don't know any better way to keep the household smiling at that hour than to have a big stack of pancakes waiting for them. Add butter or margarine and warm KARO Waffle Syrup, the new highboy decanter syrup with the enticing, maple-y taste. New KARO pours easily—and what a thrifty pricemark!

★ Broccoli goes well with all meats and fish. Bonnie Hubbard's Frozen Broccoli, Spears or Chopped, is delicious with lemon butter.

You can lead a boy to the shower but it may take his first high school dance to get him really interested in the subject of grooming. And that's when he appreciates DIAL, the soap which keeps people fresh, hour after hour and dance after dance. DIAL comes in pretty colors—green, gold, pink, blue to match bathroom tile and accessories—and in facial and bath sizes.

That new, heavier, REYNOLDS WRAP is wonderful for outdoor cookery (it's 50% stronger than before) and it's just as useful in the kitchen. When you poach eggs, make little "boats" of REYNOLDS Broiler Foil. Grease them; place 1 egg in each and float in boiling water; cover, simmer 10 minutes. Result: perfect poached eggs, the prettiest you ever saw on toast.

"Company coming!" Finger-tip towels for the bathroom and a quick run-over for the already-shining porcelain (BAB-O Cleanser keeps it that way). For this cleanser removes grease, soap film and other stains and leaves surfaces bright and smooth, with no after-film to catch dust or oil, makes it germ-free as well. When you buy BAB-O, look for the giant-size.

That's all for now!
See you next week!

MY THANKS TO THE NEWSPAPERS OF THE UNITED STATES

Reading our newspapers this week, we notice that the story of the retail food merchant is prominent in both news and advertisements placed by the individual papers. As a food merchant who devotes every day to planning so that you will receive the quality of food that makes for better meals we appreciate their support. We also realize the responsibility we have in using our local county paper in sending a weekly message to you. We realize that we come into your home at your invitation because you pay for this paper. Therefore, we double check our advertising information so that you can rely on it's veracity with the same faith in which you read the news and other features of the paper. Again we say "Thanks—to all the newspapers who have given all the food merchants their support."

SERVING ALL OF MARIN COUNTY

TODAY'S EDITORIAL

Some Questions, Answers On Marin's Civic Center

In Monday's What Our Readers Say column on this page, Reader Marjorie C. MacDonald challenged us to give "some straight answers" in regard to specific questions she propounded. So here goes:

Q—"Why not give us the figures on how many criticisms the supervisors have received re the proposed Civic Center? How many hundreds of postcards? How many letters and telegrams?"

A—Including yesterday's post, 402 post cards, nine letters and no telegrams.

Q—"Did any of them presents facts which the supervisors should consider?"

A—Few presented facts, most of them were opinions. The supervisors have had each communication read to them and have kept a file for future use or reference.

Q—"Is it true that we have allocated 150 acres for the proposed center?"

A—No. The county several years ago purchased 140 acres in the northeast corner of the Highway 101-San Pedro Road at Santa Venetia. Eighty of the acres are for the purposes of a county fairgrounds and were purchased with funds from state fair appropriations. The other 60 acres are for the county civic center.

Q—"What do we plan to do with all this acreage?"

A—A master plan is on file and available in county administrator's office and the county planning office. It might be noted that the cost of the 140 acres was little more than about half the acreage would have been had the county taken only the choicest parts and paid severance damages to the owner.

Q—"Have the supervisors checked the current costs of construction, furniture and landscaping and allowed for inflationary trends?"

A—The total project is estimated to cost $9,500,000. The first two stages, which the supervisors propose to complete by the end of 1961, are estimated to cost $4,100,000. Estimates for the first two stages, which are based on detailed drawings of the buildings involved, included a contingency estimate to allow for rising costs. The later stages are a more general estimate and do not include such an estimate.

Another portion of Reader MacDonald's letter said it was "not so" that the supervisors decided on a pay-as-you-go plan for payment rather than a bond issue. She said the voters turned down a bond issue and then the supervisors decided upon the pay-as-you-go.

Nine years ago, in November, 1952, two bond issues were put on the ballot. One was for $1,500,000 to build an addition to the county courthouse. The other was for $3,500,000 for construction of an unspecified civic center at an unspecified location. Both were defeated.

The present civic center plan has never been before the voters because the supervisors found they could save $1,500,000 in financing costs of the first two stages by paying as they go rather than a bond issue.

This year's reduced tax rate includes funds for the center; so did last year's. By the time the first two stages are constructed, they will be paid for. And we haven't had a county tax increase in five years.

INDIVIDUALS MAKE A UNION

A trade unionist, who put up a valiant fight to raise the standards of his local, won a post on the executive board by a margin of 19 votes out of the 1,166 cast. He sent the following memorandum based on Christopher principles, to his fellow members:

"Our union can never be any better than the individuals running it.

"Self-autonomy is impossible without self-participation. A good union starts with you. It will be just as good as you and others like you make it.

"The results of the coming election will be of vital concern to every member.

"It is a human tendency to vote for self-interest rather than for the good of all concerned.

"Putting the welfare of our union above the interests of a particular party, group or individual is one sure way to protect the democratic brotherhood to which we are all looking forward.

"Vote for those whom you know want to serve and will serve our union for the best interests of all."

"Let no man seek his own, but that which is another's."

Actor With Two Profiles Finds It Both Blessing And Curse

NEW YORK (AP) — Actor Edward Binns has two profiles — can't decide whether this is a curse or a blessing.

It all came about as the result of a nose broken in his youth.

"If I turn my head one way, I look like an honest cop," he said. "If I turn it the other way, I look like a hood."

"But is this good or bad?" he asked.

It's good to the extent that his double profile has helped keep Eddie one of the busiest actors in the craft. In the last two decades he has appeared in five Broadway plays, 15 movies and some 400 television shows.

It's bad, he feels, in that producers too often cast him in police or hoodlum roles.

Gifted with one of the most memorable faces in show business, his problem has been to make his name as well known as his face.

A peaceful man by nature who served as an armament officer in World War II, Eddie is a former instructor at Pennsylvania State University. He is married and has three daughters.

Binns achieved star status this summer playing a detective lieutenant in a new CBS network show.

The program got off to good critical acclaim but has been dropped by the sponsor. Its fate is dependent on whether CBS can find another sponsor and time spot.

"THEY COMPLAIN about too much violence on television. In the first 22 shows I haven't shot one man. I did punch one fellow in the stomach, and I kissed a girl. Is that too much violence?

"But still we were dumped, even though we had good ratings. The reason given was that the public doesn't want a show that faces up to life, and shows life as it is. They say the public only wants to escape life."

BINNS SHOOK his head thoughtfully.

"But do sponsors and the agencies know what the public wants?" he asked.

"Some one once praised one of our shows by saying it was 'like real.' That's the best compliment an actor, writer or producer can get. Television needs more shows that are like real."

WHAT OUR READERS SAY

Some Thoughts On Fluoridation

EDITOR,
Independent-Journal:

That was a very imposing list of dentists who urge the fluoridation of Marin County drinking water, which was published in the Independent-Journal of Sept. 9.

I have nothing against dentists as such, but when they go beyond their field and make recommendations which affect the general health of the community, I prefer to take the opinion of qualified medical doctors . . .

VIRGINIA R. LARKE
(Mrs. Thomas H. Larke, Jr).
Fairfax

EDITOR,
Independent-Journal:

My husband and I vigorously oppose the fluoridation of water on the ground that any such action, which does not recognize the rights of all of the people concerned, is unconstitutional. Freedom of choice is an American right, and while there is nothing to prevent anyone from getting his doctor to prescribe fluorides for his own family's use, there certainly would be a breach of civil liberties if there were to be MASS fluoridation of water.

The issue before us is solely deprivation of civil rights — it is NOT a matter of "crackpots" and minority religious groups, as indicated by Dr. Ellis Sox of San Francisco. Why should anyone, be he a Christian Scientist, Catholic, Protestant or Jew, or even a "crackpot" be forced to drink fluoridated water without regard to his wishes?

In Marin County, we are NOT concerned with what other cities or counties have done — we are concerned solely and principally with an attempt, on the part of a high pressure group, to "legislate without representation." Fluoridation is merely incidental to the issue. . . .

MARGUERITE KLAPKA
(Mrs. J. J. Klapka)
Strawberry

EDITOR,
Independent-Journal:

At first I read the fluoridation news with some amusement — so much fuss over something so minor as tooth decay.

But on the advice of a friend, I accumulated the dental bills of my four children for five years. The amount was staggering — over $1,200.

This breaks down to $60 per child per year, and I find this is small compared to some families.

With fluoridated water, we could have saved two thirds of this amount! Eight hundred dollars in five years.

At this rate, tooth decay is not a minor problem.

MRS. DAVID G. HANLEY
Mill Valley

EDITOR,
Independent-Journal:

Should the D.D.S. get his fluoride into a law, we might expect the M.D. to legislate vitamins, the dermitologist to lobby for his favored chemical in every bar of soap, and the thermotherapist to demand that every light globe be a health lamp. The precedent is dangerous.

F. P. SHERRY
San Rafael

EDITOR,
Independent-Journal:

In Sept. 10 I-J there was a headline about 75 per cent of dentists in favor of fluoridation of water.

I talked to one of the 25 per cent who did not. His reasons as close as I can remember are: Hydrofloric acid is a deadly poison, so powerful it will eat glass. It kills germs very effectively, humans too, but adds nothing to your teeth and health . . .

I would think, or like to think, the I-J would consult some neutral research outfit, or the medical association, and get an opinion from them . . .

SAM HARKLEROAD
Novato

(NOTE: Reader Harkleroad might like to look up U.S. Public Health Reports, Vol. 73, Aug. 1958 for an impartial study. Marin County Medical Society approved fluoridating Marin County's water in March 1958 by a vote of 110 to 6. California Medical Association's office in San Francisco reports that both the CMA and the American Medical Association have several times voted on fluoridation of water and "we approve of it thoroughly.")

Partner Helped Meat To Guam

EDITOR,
Independent-Journal:

In reference to Friday, Sept. 11, article concerning the San Anselmo Meat Markets' shipment to Guam, we would like to assure our friends and customers that Jay Jones is still a partner in the business.

James Biagini, being the considerate gentleman that he is, no doubt did not intentionally imply that he was sole proprietor and/or solely responsible for the selling and packaging of the Guam order but we feel, to set the record straight, that we should publically announce our connection with the business.

REMEMBER WHEN

10 YEARS AGO

The phone rate increases granted in July by the public utilities commission became effective in Marin, putting the single party line up from $4.25 a month to $4.75; two-party lines went from $3.25 to $3.65, four-party lines from $2.50 to $2.75.

20 YEARS AGO

Northwestern Pacific Railroad employees protested to the California Railroad Commission against abandonment of county commute train and ferry service on the ground that the electric system was an integral part of the whole line.

TRY AND STOP ME

BENNETT CERF

Miami Seaquarium attendants have become used to some oddball questions. One tourist wanted to know if the sea cows could be milked; another actually asked if jelly fish come in assorted flavors.

For a publicity "gag" picture, the Seaquarium and the Florida Citrus commission "planted" an orange tree — complete with tied-on fruit — smack in the middle of the Seaquarium's main tank. With in one hour, five visitors demanded to know the secret for growing oranges under water!

Young Cyril was boasting about his newly-acquired canine.

"What kind of a dog is it, Cyril?" asked the teacher indulgently.

"Sort of a mixed-up kind," admitted Cyril. "Pop calls him a cocker scandal."

Winston Churchill's definition of an appeaser: "One who feeds a crocodile — hoping it will eat him last."

An inquisitive student phoned the Manischewitz bakery and asked, "Can you give me a precise definition of what a matzoth is?"

"I don't know exactly what it is," replied the girl at the switchboard, "buf it sure is my bread and butter."

No Night Grid Games For Novato Unless Philanthropist Gives $40,000

Novato High School's varsity football squad, with last year's glories still undimmed in memory, has but dark prospects of playing any night games on the home field this season.

The Hornets, who ended up in second place in the North Bay League last year — their first varsity play since the high school opened four years ago—will probably not have flood lights this year unless some philanthropist comes along with $40,000. That's the estimated amount it would take to install the light standards.

There had been talk among members of the now inactive Hornet Boosters Club of organizing a drive for the needed funds. But that was last year during the crest of the team's near victorious season.

Jack Sparrow Sr., one of the club's organizers, reports that interest was high, but it subsided once the football season merged into basketball play.

Jack, whose son Jack Jr., last year was one of the Hornets' sparkplugs in the quarterback spot, is quick to point out that in the four years that Novato has been playing football — freshman, jayvee and varsity—the teams have played 38 games and have lost only three of them.

WINN ENGVALL, county farm and home advisor for the University of California extension service, is not one to put himself out on a limb.

He was describing a thistle which is fast spreading throughout parts of California. He was speaking at a recent meeting of the board of directors of the Marin County Farm Bureau in Novato.

The weed has both male and female plants and often dies out after one season because it tends to grow in patches of either one sex or the other, he said.

"How do you tell the difference between the male and the female?" demanded Capt. Charles Clarkson, a director.

"That," retorted Engvall, "could be of interest only to another thistle."

FOR THOSE readers who may have feared for the life of the baby rattler that was scooped into a bucket by members of the St. Francis Episcopal Church choir during a recent rehearsal and then placed outside a church door, here is comforting news.

The foot-long reptile was taken by its chief captor, choir member Dave Rooney, to the Junior Museum of Marin in San Rafael. There it is reported thriving and still hissing ungratefully.

MONKEYS ARE the craziest people. This we pretty well knew before attending the monkey-people party held last week at the Novato ranch home of Mr. and Mrs. Harry O. Seiler.

But we picked up some new points from the enthusiastic simian owners who had gathered for swimming and a spaghetti dinner with their admired pets.

A monkey for instance, we're told, refused to tolerate fleas. Mrs. Seller's five-year old pet "Scooter" has even made friends with her several dogs, she says, by keeping them free of the pests.

The animal's high intelligence gives it a curiosity greater than that of a cat and makes it more interesting to have around the house. This, coupled with a childlike loyalty and affection for humans, makes it a pet worth having, they'll tell you.

If their enthusiasm spreads, monkeys someday may become the rage, depriving the zoo of one of its biggest attractions.

ROSCOE DRUMMOND

UN Discovers New Way To Become Effective Despite Veto

It is welcome to have the Soviet Union advise Red China to quiet down the Indian border incidents and to try to negotiate them peacefully.

It is welcome to see Moscow taking, for the first time, a neutral attitude toward a quarrel in which its Communist ally is involved — the dispute with India — and to note Premier Chou En-lai's quick response to Khrushchev's wishes.

It is welcome to see the aggression on the Laos-North Vietnam frontier slackening off at the start of Premier Khrushchev's visit to the United States.

BUT MORE IMPORTANT than all these developments is the way the United Nations Security Council found it possible to send a fact-finding commission to Laos despite the effort of the Soviet Union to block it.

It is encouraging that the Security Council had the ingenuity to circumvent and somewhat cut back the wide-ranging power of the Soviet veto to immobilize the Council.

I don't mean that the Security Council cannot be stopped in its tracks at many points by the veto. It can. But the veto is weaker than it was a week ago.

HOW THIS WAS done shows the way the U. N. Security Council slowly, steadily, bit by bit, is achieving the flexibility—the freedom from the rigidity imposed by the veto — to do its job.

Let me put the power of the veto as carefully as I can. Broadly it applies to actions of substance to be taken by the Security Council; it does not apply to procedural decisions.

Specifically, on the basis of past practice and precedent, one nation could block the Security Council (1) from taking any military sanctions to settle an international dispute; (2) from taking any non-military sanction; (3) from making any recommendations as to how a dispute could be settled; (4) from investigating a dispute even when asked by the injured country.

The sending of a U. N. commission to Laos obviously does involve an investigation of the Laos-North Vietnam dispute to find out what is happening.

The Security Council was able to take this action because it refrained from asking the commission to make any recommendations. And to make its legal position more secure, it omitted from the resolution any reference to "investigation." It won't "investigate" — technically. It will just gather the facts on the spot and report them to the Security Council.

WHAT HAPPENED was that the Security Council voted 10-to-1 to create this commission under Article 29 which says that it may establish any subordinate body it deems necessary to perform its functions.

The Soviet delegate then cast what he affirmed was a "veto" vote. Whereupon the President of the Council ruled that this was a procedural matter, that the Soviet vote did not have the effect of a veto. The Soviet delegate appealed the ruling and the ruling was upheld 10-to-1.

Owners Ask More For School Site

Owners of part of a 16.7-acre parcel in Raphael Village, planned by the San Jose school district as a new upper grade school site, have asked that an offer of $5,500 per acre be increased to include severance damages.

Trustees, meeting Monday in the office of Supt. Phillip W. Schneider, turned the letter from the Kaehler Construction Co. over to Deputy County Counsel E. Warren McGuire to determine if the appraisals had included severance provisions.

The board increased its current year's budget by $7,749 to provide for additional state loan payments.

Trustees also agreed to pay $800 to television station KQED for educational programs during the present school year, and signed a contract with the Novato Sanitary District providing for sewage service for the new Meadow Park School additions.

Drainage Of Lucky Drive To Be Aired

Cost of building a concrete drainage structure at the Lucky drive extension to Redwood High School will be discussed at 8 p.m. Friday in Corte Madera Town Hall by representatives of Corte Madera and the Lucky Drive Assessment District.

The low $33,459 bid of Vincent Maggiora and Son exceeded the project estimate by $8,693. The Town of Corte Madera, which had agreed to contribute $15,481, faces an additional expense of $2,678 if Maggiora is awarded the contract.

Parties to the special assessment district are Schultz Investment Co., the Fifer interests and Tamalpais Union High School District.

Ex-Marinites Near 50th Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Leander A. Sharrow, former Marin County residents, will be honored on their golden wedding Sept. 27 with a reception at their home, 9120 Greenback lane, Orangevale, Sacramento County from 3 to 7 p.m.

Mr. and Mrs. Sharrow were married in Kenosha, Wis., and came to California in 1920. They settled in Marin where Sharrow worked in building construction and their children attended local schools.

They moved to the Sacramento area in 1946 and Sharrow retired there. There are seven children: Hal Sharrow of 526 Red Hill avenue, San Anselmo; Gene Sharrow of Wake Island; Lester Sharrow of North Sacramento; Larry Sharrow of Rio Linda; Mrs. Frances Klein and Mrs. Patricia Stapleton of North Highlands, and Mrs. Bernice Hackney of Carmichael, as well as 21 grandchildren and three great-grandchildren.

THE PARENTS' CORNER

By RICHMOND BARBOUR, Ph. D.
Guidance Counsellor

Children Of 8 Love Parents, Make Wonderful Companions

Eight is a wonderful year. Children of 8 love their parents. They're fine companions. Do you have an 8-year-old? You're lucky.

Nearly all kids of 8 like school. They're interested in their studies. They work well. They don't fight their teachers. They enjoy playground activities. They learn fast. Check the books your 8-year-old is reading now. Check again next June. You'll be surprised at the progress.

Gangs begin to form at 8. Boys' gangs are especially strong. Try to make sure your son runs with a good gang. If you live where no good gangs are available, try to move. No matter how good a boy may be, a bad gang will hurt him. The Y-Indian Guides provide good gangs. The Cub Scouts are excellent. Church groups probably are even better.

Spend a lot of time with your 8-year-old. You'll have fun. Take trips together. Go to ball games, or go fishing. Build strong ties of love and faith. You'll need them to carry you through troubled teen years.

You should have rules, of course. Your 8-year-old needs guidance. He should learn he can't steal things from the store, fight constantly or tell lies. You should teach him such lessons. Try to be consistent with him. Work things out with your spouse so you enforce the same rules. You can count on your 8-year-old. He'll try to be good most of the time.

READERS' FORUM

(Q) "I'll soon have my first baby. My friends tell me it would be best to breast feed the baby. Do you agree? Isn't it simpler with bottles? Would nursing ruin my figure?"

—B.F.T.

(A) I can't speak as a physician. Ask your pediatrician about physical health aspects of breast feeding. I can speak as a guidance counselor. From the mental health standpoint, every comparison favors breast feeding. Many mothers say that breast feeding is simpler than bottle feeding. Many also say that their figures were improved by breast feeding.

Mill Valley's Enrollment Hits 3,096

The latest "countdown" of pupil enrollment in the Mill Valley schools has missed the predicted registration by only four, Supt. G. Robert McConnell reported to the trustees.

As of Monday, there were 3,096 enrolled against a predicted figure of 3,100 and 2,950 on the same date a year ago, McConnell said.

Trustees Monday night confirmed the interim appointment of Logan T. Miles as principal of Edna Maguire School, which will be in addition to his duties as assistant superintendent for educational services. McConnell told the trustees the appointment might extend for the entire school year, adding, "it is most unlikely that we will be able to obtain a qualified person for the post prior to the next school year."

The vacancy was created with the recent resignation of Daryl A. Hopkins, who joined the county school department.

Trustees also authorized payment of warrants totaling $82,579.84.

Morale Boosters

CHICAGO (AP) — Parting is sweet, not sorrowful when teenage volunteers are in the Mount Sinai Hospital children's ward for the end of visiting hours.

The hospital has 75 high school students who do volunteer work in their spare time. One helpful activity is reading to child patients so they won't feel lonely immediately after their parents depart for home.

DAILY CRYPTOQUOTE — Here's how to work it:

A X Y D L B A A X R
is L O N G F E L L O W

One letter simply stands for another. In this sample A is used for the three L's, X for the two O's, etc. Single letters, apostrophes, the length and formation of the words are all hints. each day the code letters are different.

DOES YOUR SON SAY, "WHY CAN'T WE STAY IN ONE PLACE LIKE OTHER PEOPLE?"

No wonder Johnny is bewildered and unhappy. Once again he has had to leave playmates behind, move into a strange neighborhood, enter a strange school. Why don't his parents buy a home and stop this endless moving?

Johnny's father says: "Sure, I'm going to buy a home some day."
Wisdom says: "Buy it now!" Now when Johnny needs it most . . . when Johnny's father and mother are young enough to enjoy the home with their children . . . when Johnny's father is at the beginning of one of his longest earning periods.

This is a good time to buy a home, probably the best in the history of this country. For the manner in which homes are financed nowadays puts home ownership on a better basis than ever before. The cost of a home can be paid off over a long period of time. Monthly payments are usually LESS than you would have to pay in rent for the same type of property. Give a thought to buying NOW . . . and when you do, be sure and call a Multiple Listing REALTOR a member of

Prisoner In Brief Flight From Camp

Bobby Ray Crow, 23, an escapee from a San Quentin Prison camp in Humboldt County, was recaptured by a sheriff's deputy 20 miles from the camp Sunday night.

Associate Warden Walter D. Achuff said Crow walked off a work project on Highway 99 in Humboldt County about 11 a.m. Friday. Apparently he just wandered around in the woods for two days, Achuff said.

Crow, who was sentenced from Napa for stealing a doctor's kit in 1958, was to be released next April.

He is in custody in Eureka where he is to be charged with escape, Achuff said.

SHE DOESN'T OWN SET

Ingrid Bergman's Nervous But Happy Over TV Debut

By CYNTHIA LOWRY

NEW YORK (AP)—Ingrid Bergman, back here on her first working visit in 10 years, learns fast. On her first night in New York, Miss Bergman dedicated herself to watching television and fell asleep, just like a seasoned viewer.

The Swedish-born, Paris-based film star is here to make her TV debut. In spite of the succession of problems complicating her private life, Miss Bergman looks radiant and is excited about attempting what is, to her, a new acting medium.

"I am a little nervous about it," she confesses. "But I love acting in the theater; I love making motion pictures. I think I shall love television because it seems like a combination of the two."

The modern miracle of tape recording and a new adaption of Henry James' classic ghost story, "The Turn of the Screw," persuaded Miss Bergman to make her debut on television via NBC's Oct. 20 Ford special.

"It is going to be very hard work, and I don't see how we can do it with so little rehearsal time," she says. "But I am happy to try it. I've had many offers to do live television shows of course, but I've always turned them down because I was afraid it wouldn't be good—there was no way to take it back and do it over."

Miss Bergman, who lives with her three young children and her new husband on a big place outside Paris, does not have a TV set in her home.

She says: "I did not want the children to neglect their studies by watching it. So I have seen very little, too."

During her three-week stay in New York, Miss Bergman will rehearse for two and a half weeks in a rehearsal hall and for another four days in the studio. Then the show will be taped in 90 minutes—and the star jets home to Paris. With a lot of American money.

KGO To Program Nikita In N.Y.

Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev's arrival in New York City and highlights of his activities there tomorrow will be shown over KGO-TV (Channel 7) at 10 p.m.

On Friday, Khrushchev's speech to the United Nations will be telecast at noon.

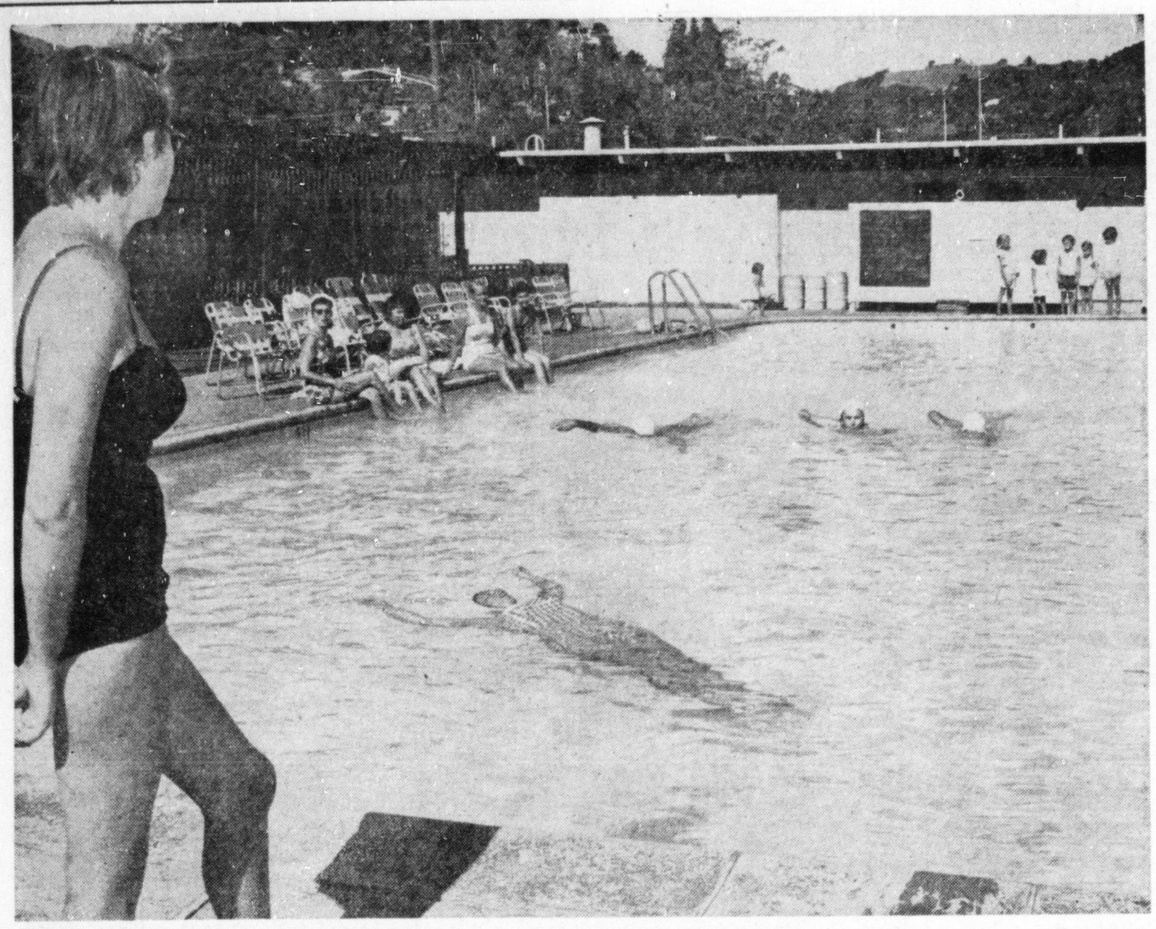

Driving Instructors Finish Training Course

Two driver education instructors of San Rafael High School have completed a San Jose State College teacher-training course on the Aetna Drivotrainer, a behind-the-wheel classroom training device.

They are Patrick W. Costello of 8 Loma Linda road and Carter L. Faust of 265 Union street, San Rafael, who are to instruct on a Drivotrainer at San Rafael High this fall.

FIRST OF SIX—The Paul Daly Swim School was the first private-membership swimming club established in Marin County. Since it opened in 1953, five others have gone into business. One of its activities is a Red Cross life saving course for mothers. Mrs. Alison Fairweather instructs Mrs. Jack L. Strauss (floating on her back) and Mrs. Thomas Carson, Mrs. Robert Mauch and Mrs. Morton May, who are swimming toward her. (Independent-Journal photo)

NEW ANN CURTIS POOL—The swimming school of Ann Curtis Cuneo and her husband, Gordon, opened this summer in Terra Linda. Business was brisk during their first season. Now somewhat emptied by the opening of school, the pool has become the property of pre-school children and their mothers. Little Diane Malerbi gets ready to take the plunge while Mrs. William Guthrie smiles, her mother, Mrs. Eugene Malerbi, puts out a helping hand, and Mrs. Virgil Caron watches. Private Swimming Clubs Making Big Splash With Marin Water Enthusiasts

By DIANA BRUCE

Private swimming clubs have become a booming business in Marin County since a high school coach named Paul Daly opened the first one in 1953.

The county now has six clubs, and even the two that opened this summer — the Ann Curtis School of Swimming in Terra Linda and the Country Club pool in San Rafael—report business was brisk during their first season.

Another private-membership swimming pool to open this summer in Marin County is the pool at Silver Hills Country Club in Novato. As the name indicates, it is not solely a swimming club. Its first stage of development will include a golf course, driving range and putting green, archery range, clubhouse, steam room and health studio.

Added to the solidly established Meadow Club in Fairfax and Lagunitas Country Club in Ross, it brings the number of county clubs with swimming pools to a total of three.

Pools open to the public are sharing in the business boom. Marin Town and Country Club in Fairfax has expanded the number of pools to seven: three swimming pools, one diving pool and three wading pools.

Plans are afoot for more private membership pools. An application is pending before the San Rafael Planning Commission for a swimming club on Fifth avenue. Recently the same planning commission turned down an application for a Terra Linda pool when neighbors objected.

It was only seven summers ago that the Paul Daly Swim School initiated the trend. The school opened at 980 Magnolia avenue in Larkspur with an especially designed pool for teaching youngsters how to swim.

The pool is two and one-half feet deep at either end. Although it gets deeper in the middle, the maximum depth is only four and one-half feet. In 1956 a larger L-shaped pool with a diving board was added.

The Paul Daly venture and four other Marin swimming clubs actually operate both as private membership pools and as swimming schools, where non-member pupils come in, take their lessons, and then depart.

Most of the swimming schools offer lessons in small groups. The Paul Daly school has no more than three pupils under each instructor. All instructors are former students of Daly's. He has been swimming coach at Tamalpais and Sir Francis Drake High Schools and now holds that job at Redwood High School.

All the swimming pools close for the winter months. The new Country Club swimming pool in San Rafael, unique among the clubs in that it is part of a recreation development including a bowling alley, cocktail lounge and restaurant, may re-open as early as February next year.

Prices vary but all must pay the steep 20 per cent federal entertainment tax. The Daly club, limited to a membership of 100 families, has a total fee of $144 per season per family. The new club, owned by Gordon and Ann Curtis Cuneo, charges $150 per family for a season. The Las Gallinas Aquatic Club at 4480 Redwood Highway, three miles north of San Rafael, has a slightly more involved system, but with season membership pegged at $125 for a family of four. The new Country Club's fee for a family is $135.

The Edgewater Inn pool in Corte Madera is open to motel guests and members only. The Santa Venetia Swimming Club has a different system. After an initial joining-up fee, it charges dues of $6 a month. It is limited to 70 families and has a waiting list.

Most famous swimming club operator is Mrs. Cuneo, the former Ann Curtis, who won two gold medals and one silver medal for the United States in the Olympic Games of 1948.

In addition to anchoring the victorious 400-meter relay team and placing second in the 100-meter freestyle, she won the 400-meter freestyle.

She is the only American girl to win an Olympic freestyle race in the past 27 years. She was also the first American woman to crack the one-minute mark with a 59.4 seconds clocking in 1949 to equal the world record.

Other swimming club managers are professional, besides Mrs. Cuneo and Daly. Lyle Collet, who is partner and manager of the Las Gallinas Aquatic Club, has coached championship YMCA swimming teams. Joanne Millin, a former national synchronized ballet swimming champion and a "Water Follies" star, is in charge at Country Club pool.

WE COULD BUY PEACE PIPES— $2,806 WORTH

SACRAMENTO (AP) — The State of California is not one to welch on a debt.

One hundred years ago, when the state's annual revenue was counted in four figures instead of 10, California had to issue bonds to raise quick money for fighting Indians.

Most of the bonds were redeemed at their maturity dates within 5 to 10 years, but State Controller Alan Cranston finds $2,806 still in the treasury to redeem missing bonds.

"It seems improbable that anyone will ever again present an Indian bond for payment," said Cranston, "but we'll keep the account intact on the off-chance the bonds may yet turn up."

Solons To Investigate San Simeon Bus Route

SACRAMENTO (AP) — An Assembly subcommittee has figured out how it can see Hearst Castle at San Simeon without waiting for a bus tour.

It will hold meetings in the castle Oct. 8 and 9 to investigate the public transportation system at the state park.

The state runs bus tours from State Route 1 to the castle every 20 minutes from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. The day's tours are often sold out by 8 a.m. No reservations are accepted.

Assemblyman S. C. Masterson (D-El Sobrante), chairman of the Interim Committee on Governmentmental Efficiency and Economy, said the subcommittee will investigate possible improvements or curtailment of the present operations.

Masterson said the meetings regretably will be closed to the public "due to the inaccessibility of Hearts Castle."

But the public is invited to send written statements, he said.

The castle, opened in 1958 as a state park, is attracting capacity crowds of about 1,330 visitors per day. A total of 332,685 had paid admission through last Sept. 5, 182,042 of them this year.

Hemingway Robbed

MADRID (UPI)—Ernest Hemingway appealed today to the pickpocket who robbed him at a bullfight in Murcia last week to return his wallet even if he keeps the $150 that was in it.

He said the wallet was a gift from his son, Patrick, a professional hunter in the East African colony of Tanganyika.

"I beg of you to send back my billfold with the image of St. Christopher in it," Hemingway said in an ad published by the newspaper Pueblo. "As for the 9,000 pesetas ($150) it contained, your skill deserves that prize as a reward."
